PARISH LIFE

PLEASE JOIN US!

Make plans now to join us Sunday, August 7 to welcome our new parish staff. There will be a reception between the 8 a.m. and 10 a.m. Masses and another between the 10 a.m. and 12:15 p.m. Masses to welcome the following individuals to their new positions: Sister Marie Hannah, O.P., Sister Augusta, O.P., Sister Maria Clemens, O.P., Dr. Stephen Black and Mike Biggs. This will be a great time to get to know our new staff and welcome them to Saint James.

The new Saint James Parish Pastoral Council met on July 12 to begin its pilgrimage of serving as a resource and advisory board for Saint James Catholic Church and all its ministries including collaboration with the Saint James Catholic School Board. During the meeting we discussed roles and responsibilities and how best we can reach out to you and support all of our parishioners in the many decisions we will be making going forward. The energy of the group was both exciting and positive. You'll learn more about your Parish Council very soon.

MEET YOUR PARISH COUNCIL!

You can meet members of your new Parish Pastoral Council on Sunday, August 14 during Coffee and Donuts after the 8 a.m. and 10 a.m. Masses. If weather permits, we will have a tent set up on the front lawn and members of the team will be on hand to meet with you and discuss how they can represent you and your parish needs. Please make plans to join us!

The Forever Young Club will gather on Tuesday, August 9 at 6:00 p.m. in the Rodney Thomas Room for a potluck dinner and meeting. Musical entertainment will be provided by "Fowler Boys and Friends."

For more information please contact:

Jean Dudgeon at 270-765-7577.

STEWARDSHIP

It has been recommended and approved by the Finance Council of Saint James Parish, that the weekly reporting of tithing as currently printed in the bulletin, be consolidated into a monthly report to parishioners. In the past some numbers have been delayed or not totally understood. It was felt that a monthly reporting would provide our parishioners with a better collective update and accountability throughout the year. Watch for the new reporting in our August 7 bulletin for July numbers. Thank you!

"Jesus was praying in a certain place, and when he had finished, one of his disciples said to him, 'Lord, teach us to pray just as John taught his disciples.'" Luke 11:1

Scriptures tell us Jesus prayed before every major action in His life. We should strive to follow Jesus' example by always praying first. In that way, we can ensure we are doing God's work and not our own.

As for Mary, she treasured all these words and pondered them in her heart. –Lk 2:19

REFLECTION. The Rosary has conquered countless enemies, and many pray it in front of abortion mills. As we acknowledge Jesus as the fruit of Mary's womb, we stand to pray for our brothers and sisters in the womb. As we honor the greatest mother, we pray for all the frightened mothers.

PRAYER. Mary, our Mother, lead us to His victory over all forms of death.

Dominican Sisters of Saint Cecilia

Sister Augusta, O.P. ~ Growing up in the Archdiocese of Denver, Sister Augusta followed the Lord's invitation to consecrated religious life after two years of college and joyfully made her final profession of vows in July 2013. As a sister she graduated from Aquinas College in Nashville, with a degree in interdisciplinary studies and a license in elementary education. She has taught fifth-eighth grade in schools served by the Congregation in Oakridge and Nashville, TN, as well as in Kennesaw, GA. She continues her formal theological studies in the summers through the Pontifical Faculty of the Immaculate Conception, staffed by the Dominican Fathers, in Washington, D.C. In addition to a general love of the outdoors, she is delighted to be heading to the "Blue Grass" state as horses were her "first love" as a child. Her patron saint is Saint Augustine of Hippo, who displays the powerful working of God's Grace not only by relinquishing a life of sin, but converting daily and ever more deeply to life in God. She looks forward with great joy to serving the Lord and His people at Saint James as the Director of Formation/Education.

Sister Maria Clemens, O.P. ~ Sister proudly claims South Dakota as her home state, and acknowledges the great influence both dioceses there had on her decision to become a religious sister. Before entering, Sister earned a degree in elementary and special education, which she then put to use teaching at the Black Hills Children's Home, a residential treatment facility for children who have suffered abuse. Sister placed these gifts at the service of the Lord and His Church when she entered the convent during the Jubilee Year of 2000. Since joining the Congregation, she has taught grades preK-eighth, serving in TN, VA, GA, and IL. She has also managed the St. Cecilia Motherhouse kitchen in Nashville, preparing three meals a day for the 200 sisters who reside there. Sister Maria Clemens received her Masters in Inclusive Education from Kennesaw State University in GA, and is currently pursuing a Masters in Theology from Franciscan University of Steubenville during the summer months. Outside of her passion for teaching and nurturing the growth of children, Sister also enjoys gardening, completing crafts, and cooking. The word "Clemens" is Latin for "merciful." Sister Maria Clemens selected this name after having prayed the Divine Mercy Chaplet in discernment of God's Will for her vocation. She now celebrates Divine Mercy Sunday (one week after Easter) as her feast day. With her dual role as first grade teacher at Saint James School and Coordinator of Children's Religious Education, Sister is happy to assist children and parents alike in their faith journeys.

Sister Marie Hannah, O.P. ~ Having lived all her life in Texas, Sister Marie Hannah set her heart firmly on the Lord and in 1999 joined the Dominican Sisters in Nashville. There she continued her previous studies in education, and graduated from Aquinas College with a degree in interdisciplinary studies and a license in elementary education. While teaching grades ranging from first to eighth in a number of schools staffed by the Congregation, including those in MN, VA, MO, and TN, Sister earned her Masters in Educational Leadership from Christian Brothers University in Memphis. Most recently she has served as Principal in Murfreesboro, TN. Sister also holds her Masters in Theological Studies from Providence College. When not engaged in service to her community and school, Sister enjoys hiking, working on her Spanish language acquisition, and reading rich spiritual works. While the name "Hannah" means "grace" in Hebrew, Sister first took this name in Confirmation after the Old Testament woman of faith who famously proclaimed all the good God had done for her. Mary herself echoes Hannah's words in her "Magnificat," spoken on the occasion of her visit to Elizabeth. For this reason Sister celebrates the Visitation as her feast day. Sister Marie Hannah is delighted to be in E-town and to serve its families as Principal of Saint James Catholic School.
