Thank you from Saint James Catholic School PTO

Many thanks to all those who made the Saint James

Catholic School Fall Festival a wonderful success!! The threat of rain provided an opportunity for the PTO to create a new fun indoor carnival atmosphere.

The success of the event could not have been possible without the help of parents, teachers and administrators who worked hard to pull things together. A sincere thank you for all your hard work – it certainly paid off!

Saint James Catholic School is blessed by the generosity of our entire community and our children and faculty will benefit from the funds raised during the Fall Festival.

We are excited to share numbers with you—watch this space in the coming weeks for a report on revenue brought in from the event. Thank you again!

RCIA Fun Fact:

Did you know that an unbaptized adult seeking to enter into the Church is referred to as a catechumen? This word comes from a Greek term identifying one who is under instruction. Our catechumens are preparing themselves for Baptism, First Holy Communion, and Confirmation by receiving not only academic lessons, but instruction in the whole way of life that marks a Disciple of Jesus Christ!
