FROM THE ASSOCIATE PASTOR

Dear Parishioners:

November brings with it the solemnity of All Saints Day and All Souls Day as well as a very busy month which includes a general election that has been one of the most challenging in recent years. No doubt we will all be happy to have it behind us. Let us pray that our brothers and sisters in Christ make the best decision for our country allowing the Catholic Church to remain strong in its convictions and teachings.

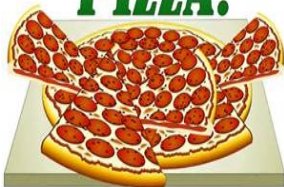

As I'm sure you have already heard, we have another Pizza with the Pastor coming up at 6 p.m. on Thursday, November 17 in the Saint James Catholic School Gym. I am looking forward to giving a brief "state of the parish" address which will include updates on the finances, leadership—Parish Council and Parish Staff, as well as the convent. My wish is for all parishioners to attend in order to spend time with one another as well as hear up to date information on the happenings of our parish.

Lastly, I offer a bit of hope as we approach the closing of the Jubilee Year of Mercy on November 20. Throughout the year we have responded to Pope Francis' requests to focus on the spiritual and corporal works of Mercy. As the year comes to a close, I would challenge us as a parish to continue to keep Mercy at the forefront of our work together, our ministry and our communication. We will grow stronger as a parish as we continue this discipline.

Devotedly Yours in Christ,

Welcome, and are now called Candidates. By Church law, the Pope and all bishops pray for those who go through these Rites. Let us join them with our prayers as well!

the 10am Mass on Sunday, November 20.

PARISH LIFE

A Prayer for the Dead

God our Father,
Your power brings us to birth,
Your providence guides our lives,
and by Your command we return to dust.

Lord, those who die still live in Your presence,
their lives change but do not end.
I pray in hope for my family,
relatives and friends,
and for all the dead known to You alone.

In company with Christ,
Who died and now lives,
may they rejoice in Your kingdom,
where all our tears are wiped away.
Unite us together again in one family,
to sing Your praise forever and ever.

Amen.

Faithful Citizens Meeting on November 15th

Our third gathering for Faithful Citizens will be from 12:00 to 1:00 in the Maloney Room of Flaget Hall on Tuesday, November 15th. Our speaker this time will be Amy Nace-DeGonda who works with Catholic Charities of Louisville as the Human Trafficking Case Manager where she provides educational workshops and training on human trafficking and how to recognize such situations when we come in contact with people we may suspect are victims of this modern day slavery. Feel free to invite your neighbors and friends. In 2013 fifty one cases were identified in Kentucky and in 2015 there were 125 victims identified. It is a growing problem and one that each of us can help to stop if we are aware of the signs to look for. Year of Mercy Event on Restorative Justice

On Wednesday, November 30 at 7:00 p.m., Holy Trinity Parish (502 Cherrywood Road, Louisville) invites all to attend its Year of Mercy panel discussion entitled,

“A Merciful Justice: Restorative Justice in Catholic Tradition and Local Application: Faith in Action.” Restorative justice is a process where offenders have an opportunity to own wrongdoings, apologize, and make amends in an effort to put things right. Some in the community have called it “Mom’s justice” because of its simplicity and similarity to good parenting. This program will show how this modern practice with historical roots in the Church’s social justice tradition has been shown to reduce recidivism of offenders and increase victim satisfaction with the judicial process.

Featuring Archbishop Joseph Kurtz, Tori Murden-McClure, Judge Angela Bisig, County Attorney Mike O’Connell, and other civic leaders, this event will be held in the parish multi-purpose building. Please RSVP by calling Therese Carroll-Caruso at 502/897-5207. For further information, go to www.htparish.org.
