FROM THE ASSOCIATE PASTOR

Dear friends in Christ,

May God continue to bless you this Advent season. Our third candle is lit and it holds a special significance in the life of the Church. This weekend is Gaudete Sunday in which we celebrate the opportunities we have been given to “Rejoice,” after all that is what Gaudete means. As I reflect on these past few months we have been given many reasons to rejoice. I think of the recent Catholic Services Appeal in which we not only met our goal but we surpassed it greatly. More importantly, we surpassed our parishioner participation goal. How great it is when members of the Church come together to rejoice in the work of the Lord.

As the weather turns much colder we rejoice in the Room in the Inn. Not only do we provide a warm, comfortable place for people who are less fortunate than us to lay their head, but we also come together as a Christian community in this effort. This ministry takes a lot of time, effort, and energy from a wide variety of people throughout the county. We rejoice and are grateful for all involved. For many of us who have a warm bed, a hot shower, and plenty of food, may we take the time to give thanks to God for our blessings and may we be given the opportunity to help those in need.

Daily, I rejoice in the fact that stewardship is our way of life at St. James. It just makes sense. We are called to know, love, and serve the Lord and when we become active and faithful stewards, we become more joyful and experience an inner peace that lends itself to the greatest freedom we've been given and that is to love - to love God and neighbor. This Advent season may we continue to work hard at becoming good, faithful, and generous stewards, and may we find true love and peace in baby boy who will be born to us, the Savior of the world.

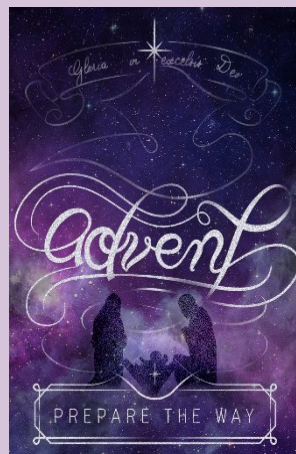

Peace and many blessings,

PARISH LIFE

Advent Vespers

The parish community of Saint James Catholic Church will pray Evening Prayer, or Vespers every Saturday at 4:30 PM in the church, for the duration of the Advent season. Vespers is one of the liturgies of the Divine Office, and is prayed and sung during Advent and Lent in parishes around the world. All parishioners are invited to participate in the music and prayers of one of the most beautiful liturgies of the church. The service precedes the 5:00 p.m. mass and lasts 15 to 20 minutes.

Throughout Advent two Priests will be hearing Confessions on Monday evenings after 6:30 p.m. Mass and on Saturdays at 3:00 p.m. Please take advantage of this opportunity to Pray, Confess, and Adventure during Advent.

THIRD SUNDAY OF ADVENT

From Archdiocese of Louisville Family Ministries Office

"By Susan Vogt, www.SusanVogt.net"

"Welcome one another, then, as Christ welcomed you." (Romans 15:6) As we approach Christmas many families will be planning family gatherings. What a joy it usually is to reunite with relatives. But some families are separated by war, forced immigration, or ill will. Does your family have a black sheep you need to make amends with? Does your country welcome all?

Total Stewardship Goal for FY 2016-2017: $2,707,953

REFLECTION

The Stewardship Committee will provide a weekly reflection to assist our parishioners as they discern how their time, talent, and treasure can positively impact our parish community.

"Strengthen the feeble hands, make firm the feeble knees. Say to those who are of a fearful heart: Be strong, fear not!.... Your God will come and save you." Isaiah 35:3-4

St. Theresa of Avila reminds us that Christ has no body on earth but ours, no hands but ours, no feet but ours. When the weak and fearful come into our lives, it is through our hands and our works that they are healed. God works through us when we accept the challenge.

TODAY'S SCRIPTURES

Third Sunday of Advent

First Reading: Isaiah 35:1-6a, 10

Second Reading : James 5:7-10

Gospel: Matthew 11:2-11

As we wait for the coming of the Lord, we prepare our hearts and homes to receive him. As Saint Paul instructs, we prepare with patience and a firm heart. We will know he has come into our hearts and homes when we model true discipleship and work to bring the Good News to those around us.

O' Mary, brilliant dawn of the world renewed, Mother of all the living, we commend to you the entire cause of life.

St. John Paul II –
The Gospel of Life

REFLECTION. When Our Lady of Guadalupe appeared to Juan Diego (whose feast was Dec. 9) the Aztecs were practicing human sacrifice. Mary's image brought the message that God was with them so much, in fact, that He became a child, carried in Mary's womb. This gave them hope, and they stopped their human sacrifice and became Christian.

PRAYER. Saint Juan Diego, pray for us. Our Lady of Guadalupe, pray for us.

Pro-Life Reflections for Every Day

Our church is invited to participate in a Pro-Life Signature Ad in memory of the more than 59 million babies aborted since January 22, 1973. The ad will run in the Sunday, January 22, 2017 statewide edition of the Courier-Journal. The ad is sponsored by Right to Life of Louisville and suggested donation is $5 per name or line. Check should be made to RTL of Louisville. Signature sign-ups will be collected following all services the weekend of December 17 & 18.

Widowed Friends Christmas Party

All widows and widowers are invited to a Christmas Party on the 15th of December at 5:30 p.m.

The party is at 22 Sharp CT, Elizabethtown, KY, Phone Contact is 270-234-4888. Please enter through the garage. Bring some of your favorite cookies for all to try. There will also be a white elephant gift exchange for those who want to participate. Please spend no more than $10 on the gift. If you have any questions please email me at karl@drerup.us.

Hope to see you there.

Feast of Our Lady of Guadalupe to be a Day of Prayer and Solidarity with Families of Immigrants

A Day of Prayer with a focus on the plight of refugees and migrants will take place across the United States on December 12, 2016, the Feast of Our Lady of Guadalupe. It will be a time to place before a merciful God the hopes, fears, and needs of all those families who have come to the U.S. seeking a better life.

"As Christmas approaches and especially on this feast of Our Lady, we are reminded of how our savior Jesus Christ was not born in the comfort of his own home, but rather in an unfamiliar manger," said Cardinal Daniel DiNardo, archbishop of Galveston-Houston and president of the United States Conference of Catholic Bishops (USCCB). "To all those families separated and far from home in uncertain times, we join with you in a prayer for comfort and joy this Advent season," Cardinal DiNardo added.

INCLEMENT WEATHER POLICY

In case of inclement weather, Mass and all other activities at Saint James Catholic Church will be cancelled if Saint James School has cancelled classes or is running on a delayed schedule. Every effort will be made to include Saint James Catholic Church in TV and radio cancellation announcements. Please use caution when making the decision to attend Mass throughout the winter months.

Praying Through Exhaustion

Oh Lord, I am so tired. It seems like the lists of to-do's get longer each day, the frenzy in my home each night gets wilder. It seems like the holidays have barely started and already I am behind. Help me, dear Jesus. Let me feel your loving arms wrap me tightly in the warm embrace of your endless love. Teach me to make choices about my time, to remember what is important this season and to say "NO" whenever my Yes would take me away from your peace. Fill me with patience, love and a sense of humor. Remind me of your deep love for me and let the fire of that love be something I can share with everyone around me.
