PARISH LIFE

We give thanks to the Lord because He is good. United in the joy of the Resurrection let us turn to the Father with our prayers:

That on Divine Mercy Sunday the Church will rededicate herself to living and proclaiming God's mercy. That persecuted Christians may feel the consoling presence of the Risen Lord and the solidarity of all the Church.

SECOND SUNDAY OF EASTER

STEWARDSHIP

CONNECT. EDUCATE. INSPIRE.

"All who believed were together and had all things in common; they would sell their property and possessions and divide them all according to each one's need." Acts 2:44-45

The early church practiced the purest form of stewardship. Their generosity was a realization that all they had belonged to God and it was entrusted to them for the sake of others.

Have you turned in your stewardship form?

Stewardship forms help us know how you want to serve and assist us in setting our budget. Even if you feel that you cannot contribute time, talent or treasure at this time, we still need a form from you. If you need a form, please call the parish office 270-765-6268.

PARISH DISCERNMENT PROCESS

Make plans to attend an upcoming Listening Session. The next sessions are scheduled for 6:00-8:30 p.m., Monday, April 24 in the Rodney Thomas Room and 6:30-8:30 p.m., Thursday, April 27 in the Saint James Catholic School cafeteria.

It is very important for all of our parishioners to be involved with this process and discern the future of Saint James Catholic Church. Your voice matters, so please make plans attend at least one of the upcoming listening sessions.

For a full listing of listening sessions and access to the Pastoral Letter and Study Guide visit stjames-etown.org. Simply click on the Current Projects link on the homepage to find the Parish Discernment

TODAY'S SCRIPTURES

Divine Mercy Sunday

First Reading: Acts 2:42-47

Second Reading: 1 Peter 1:3-9

Gospel: John 20:19-31

If Easter needs an exclamation point, Divine Mercy Sunday provides it. The death and resurrection of Jesus reveal the depths of God's mercy toward us. For by his death, Jesus won forgiveness for our sins and by rising, restored our life. In gratitude for all that we have received from God, let us go forth and treat one another with kindness and mercy.

NEXT WEEK'S SCRIPTURES

Third Sunday of Easter

First Reading: Acts 2:14, 22-33

Second Reading: 1 Peter 1:17-21

Gospel: Luke 24:13-35

+VOCATION VIEW+

The Lord will come when we least expect him. Is he knocking now, asking us to serve as a priest or religious? ( Luke 12:49-53)

AROUND & ABOUT

APRIL IS CHILD ABUSE AWARENESS MONTH

Did you know?

There is no statute of limitations for removing a cleric who has sexually abused a minor from public ministry in the Catholic Church. A cleric against whom there is an established or admitted act of child sexual abuse is permanently removed from the priesthood, regardless of when the abuse occurred.

Courage/EnCourage Support Groups Available

Are you or a loved one experiencing same-sex attraction and looking for answers?

Courage, a ministry of the Catholic Church that provides spiritual support for Catholic men and women with same-sex attraction who desire to lead chaste lives consistent with the teaching of the Catholic Church, has a local chapter offering confidential spiritual support-group meetings.

Also meeting locally, EnCourage is a companion ministry within the Courage apostolate dedicated to serving the spiritual needs of parents, siblings, children, other relatives, and friends of persons who are experiencing same-sex attractions. EnCourage members support one another and their loved ones through discussion, prayer, and fellowship in a confidential group setting.

For more information, you can reach the Courage/EnCourage co-chaplains, Fr. Matthew Hardesty or Deacon Stephen Bowling at courage@archlou.org or check out Courage's official website <http://couragerc.org>. Both the Courage and EnCourage local chapters are official ministries of the Archdiocese of Louisville through the Family Ministries Office.

The Serra Club of Louisville exists to promote vocations and to increase the spiritual formation of its members. Its next luncheon meeting is 11:45, Monday, May 1, at the Golden Corral restaurant, 4032 Taylorsville Road. The speaker will be Fr. Stuart Priddy, Pastor of St. Bartholomew parish. He will speak on his vocation journey. Cost is $12 for members and $15 for non-members. For more information, call Jerry Gonsoski at 245-5392.

All are invited to attend the 44th annual Celebration of Life Banquet, hosted by Right to Life of Louisville, on Friday, April 28, at the Crowne Plaza Hotel (830 Phillips Ln). Tickets are $40 per adult and $25 per student. Please send payment to the Right to Life office at 134 Breckinridge Ln., Louisville, KY 40207, or call the office at 895-5959 to use your credit card. There will be open seating for all ticket holders.

Hands Across Louisville Asks Catholics To Unite to Combat Gun Violence in Louisville

Hands Across Louisville is a faith-based group formed to help stamp out gun violence in our community. It seeks to work to reclaim and rebuild our community, especially in West Louisville, through education and empowerment. To demonstrate our concern and solidarity, Hands Across Louisville is inviting all Catholic parishioners to join them in a "Hands Across Louisville" event on Saturday, May 13 from 2:00 to 3:00 p.m.

The day will begin at 31st & Broadway in front of St. Martin dePorres Catholic Church. Speakers and entertainment will be featured from 10:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m.; the hand-holding portion of the day to be held from 2:00 to 3:00 p.m., when individuals will line Broadway from Cave Hill Cemetery on the east to Shawnee Park on the west.

There will be one or two small TARC buses making a circuit along Broadway from 10:00 a.m. to 4:00 p.m. that day. Those who are participating in the hand-holding event may park on any side street along Broadway or at the Kroger parking lot at 27th & Broadway. Those already at the staging area at St. Martin de Porres may catch the bus to go to any point along Broadway to join hands with others. There will be no charge for the bus for those participating in Hands Across Louisville. Just be sure to thank the driver for TARC's generous contribution to this event.
