PARISH LIFE

For you created my inmost being; you knit me together in my mother's womb. I praise you because I am fearfully and wonderfully made; your works are wonderful, I know that full well. My frame is not hidden from you when I was made in a secret place, when I was woven together in the depths of the earth. Your eyes saw my unformed body; all the days ordained for me were written in your book before they came to be.

Psalm 139:13-16

REFLECTION. The absolute inviolability of innocent human life is a moral truth clearly taught by Sacred Scripture, constantly upheld by the Church's Tradition and consistently proposed by the Magisterium. This consistent teaching is the evident result of that "supernatural sense of the faith" which, inspired and sustained by the Holy Spirit, safeguards the People from error when "it shows universal agreement in matters of faith and morals."

St. John Paul II Evangelium Vitae n.57*

The second paragraph of n.57, Evangelium Vitae, will be presented next week.*

PRAYER. Lord, we pray that the heart and conscience of every human person will compel all of humanity to protect all innocent human life, born and preborn.

October is Respect Life Month

Names for the January pro-life newspaper will be collected at all exits after Mass.

CONNECT. EDUCATE. INSPIRE.

"I know how to have little; I know what it is to have plenty. In any and in all circumstances I have learned the secret of being well-fed and of going hungry, of having plenty and of being in need."

Philippians 4:12

St. Paul neither craved nor rejected material wealth. He was simply detached from it; he could take it or leave it. A steward is called to "possess lightly." Money is neither good nor evil, but merely reflects the person who possesses it.

TODAY'S SCRIPTURES

Twenty-Eighth Sunday in Ordinary Time

First Reading: Isaiah 25:6-10a

Second Reading: Philippians 4:12-14, 19-20

Gospel: Matthew 22:1-14 or 22:1-10

Today's readings provide both comfort and challenge. We are reminded that God is gracious and merciful, forgiving our sins and providing for our needs. But we must actively listen for his call and heed it when it comes, lest we be unprepared to enter the heavenly kingdom and join in the eternal wedding feast.

NEXT WEEK'S SCRIPTURES

Twenty-Ninth Sunday in Ordinary Time

First Reading: Isaiah 45:1, 4-6

Second Reading: 1 Thessalonians 1:1-5b

Gospel: Matthew 22:15-21

+VOCATION VIEW+

The Lord will come when we least expect him. Is he knocking now, asking us to serve as a priest or religious? (Luke 12:49-53)

PARISH LIFE

The Room In The Inn Warming Shelter for the homeless in our community will begin the 3rd season here at St. James Church on Wednesday, December 6, and run through Thursday morning, March 1. Volunteers are especially needed in the following areas:

- * Male and female volunteers to spend the night at our shelter on Wednesday evenings. We need 2 men and 2 women volunteers each Wednesday and would volunteer for once a month.
- * Wednesday evening and Thursday morning drivers to pick up and transport our guests. You will be signing up for once a month.
- * Cleanup Committee each week on Thursday mornings at 8:00 am. You will be signing up for once a month.
- * Helping serve breakfast on Thursday mornings to our guests. You will be signing up for once a month.
- * Volunteers in all areas on the 5th Wednesday in January - January 31. This would be a great way to serve if you're only available to volunteer once during the season and not once a month.

If you are interested in serving in any of the above areas or in any way at all, please contact Mimi Pike, 270-272-4952, or at mimi.pike35@gmail.com
