PARISH LIFE

*In the beginning God created the heavens and the earth....
Then God said, Let us make man in Our image, according to Our likeness....* Genesis 1:1, 26

REFLECTION. When we fail to acknowledge as part of reality the worth of a poor person, a human embryo, a person with disabilities – to offer just a few examples - it becomes difficult to hear the cry of nature itself; everything is connected. Once the human being declares independence from reality, and behaves with absolute dominion, the very foundations of our life begin to crumble, for “instead of carrying out his role as a cooperator with God in the work of creation, man sets himself up in place of God and thus ends up provoking a rebellion on the part of nature.”

St. John Paul II, Centesimus Annus, May 1, 1991

When the human person is considered as simply one being among others, the product of chance or physical determinism, then “our overall sense of responsibility wanes.”

Pope Benedict XVI, Message for the 2010 World Day of Peace

PRAYER. Lord, by the loving bestowal of your grace in our hearts, may we better understand the inestimable worth of; first our brothers and sisters, born and unborn, and second the earth; created by the power of Your words to be our dwelling place until the end of time.

Thomas E. Cecil - Respect Life Committee

CONNECT. EDUCATE. INSPIRE.

"If I do so willingly, I have a recompense, but if unwillingly, then I have been entrusted with a stewardship." 1 Corinthians 9:17

Doing good works that are enjoyable, or that come natural, can be a pleasure. When faced with good works that are not simple, or that challenge us, do we serve as the hands of Jesus or do our hands stay tucked in comfortable pockets?
