PARISH LIFE

Beginning June 1 the Parish Office
Friday hours will be 8:30 a.m. until Noon.
This will be the Friday hours until August 3.

In the First Chapter of Genesis Marriage is One and Indissoluble

As Genesis 2:23 already shows, femininity finds itself, in a sense, in the presence of masculinity, while masculinity is confirmed through femininity. Precisely the function of sex, which is in a sense, "a constituent part of the person" (not just "an attribute of the person"), proves how deeply man, with all his spiritual solitude, with the never to be repeated uniqueness of his person, is constituted by the body as "he" or "she." The presence of the feminine element, alongside the male element and together with it, signifies an enrichment for man in the whole perspective of his history, including the history of salvation. All this teaching on unity has already been expressed originally in Genesis 2:23.

The unity of Genesis 2:24 speaks – "they become one flesh" – is undoubtedly expressed and realized in the conjugal act. The biblical formulation, extremely concise and simple, indicates sex, femininity and masculinity, as that characteristic of man-male and female-which permits them, when they become "one flesh," to submit their whole humanity to the blessing of fertility. However, the whole context of the lapidary formulation does not permit us to stop at the surface of human sexuality. It does not allow us to deal with the body and sex outside the full dimension of man and of the "communion of persons." Right from the beginning it obliges to see the fullness and depth which are characteristic of this unity, which man and woman must constitute in the light of the revelation of the body.

CONNECT. EDUCATE. INSPIRE.

"Teach them to observe all that I have commanded you.

And behold, I am with you always,

until the end of the age." Matthew 28:20

God is always with us, but how often are we with God?

Our relationship with God is like our relationship with our children. What our children really want from us is our time. The same is true of God. In our stewardship of time, how much time do we set aside for God in prayer?

CRUSADE FOR CHILDREN

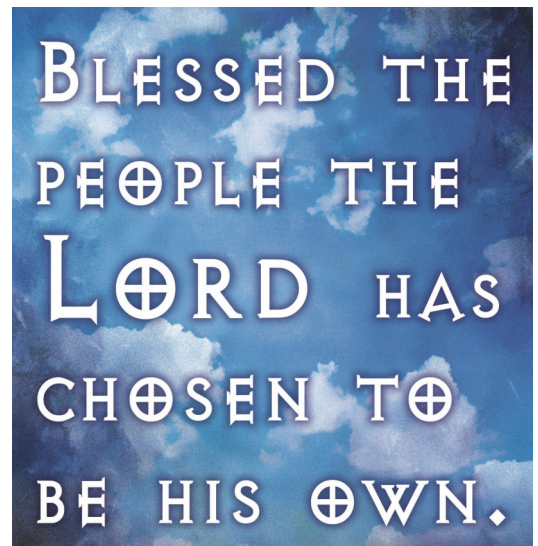

Since 1955, the Archdiocese of Louisville has contributed millions of dollars to the Crusade for Children. This community-wide effort changes the lives of children with special needs, and many families in the Archdiocese have benefited directly from the Crusade as have our schools, which receive grants to assist students with diverse learning needs. Next weekend, ushers will be collecting donations for the Crusade at the doors of the church. Those who wish to donate may bring contributions to Mass. If giving by check, please make your check payable to the parish and put the word "Crusade" in the memo line. Thank you for your generosity.

PARISH LIFE

Don't forget to submit information about any committees, groups or ministries you lead for a "Ministry Moment" where we occasionally spotlight different committees, groups, and ministries. We will be providing this information so parishioners can learn more about all of the opportunities to get involved and possibly try new things!

This bulletin is completely provided without charge through the advertisements on the back covers. Please patronize these sponsors as a thank you for their kind generosity. Our sponsor of the week is:

AROUND & ABOUT

KEEPING HIGH SCHOOL GRADUATES IN TOUCH WITH THEIR FAITH

As some of our youth go away to college for the first time this Fall, you can submit the student's name and college to the Newman Connection online.

This will enable the college's local Catholic community to contact the student about Catholic social functions as well as the time and location of weekend Masses. If interested, you can do this at http://www.serraus.org/serrausa/serra_connect.htm or you can contact Chuck Lynch of the Serra Club of Louisville, at (502) 442-9302 or ChuckLynch4782@gmail.com.
