PARISH LIFE

Abortion Comes to Ireland
May all of us be like a paschal light in the new age of darkness

The great St. Patrick devoted his life to bringing the light of Christianity to the Emerald Isle. Some 1500 years after his death, the island needs the Apostle of Ireland's inspirational flame more than ever.

Ireland voted May 25, and not only did the Irish people choose to repeal the 8th Amendment to the Irish Constitution that guaranteed the right to life of unborn children, they did so by a massive margin. The final vote resulted in a 66.4% to 33.6% majority to remove the 8th Amendment. The government of Taoiseach (Prime Minister) Leo Varadkar has pledged to introduce legislation to permit abortion on demand up to 12 weeks, up to 24 weeks in cases where there is (unspecified) risk to the health of the mother, and up to birth when the child in the womb is diagnosed with a life-limiting condition. Ireland's abortion regime is likely to be approved in the fall.

In the span of 30 years, one generation in time, Ireland has gone from being one of the most Catholic countries in the world, with legal protections for both mother and child enshrined in its constitution, to a nation that has declared its unborn children have no legal rights of any kind.

While abortion elsewhere was unleashed by an elitist act of parliament or – as in the case of the United States – imposed by an activist judiciary, Ireland marks the first time in history that a nation has freely chosen by popular vote to permit abortion. That fact becomes even more sobering considering the now repealed 8th Amendment was first approved by referendum in 1983 by 67% of the Irish people (a slightly higher majority than those who voted last month to repeal it).

"He said, "To what shall we compare the kingdom of God....? It is like a mustard seed that, when it is sown in the ground, is the smallest of all the seeds on the earth. But once it is sown, it springs up and becomes the largest of plants and puts forth large branches, so that the birds of the sky can dwell in its shade."" Mark 4:30-32

Stewardship teaches us that no matter how insignificant we may seem to ourselves, we can produce great things when we use the gifts that God has given us.

Serving Others in God's Love
Religious Freedom Week
June 22-29, 2018

Religious Freedom Week is June 22-29.

As chair of the USCCB's Committee for Religious Liberty, Archbishop Kurtz announced the observance of Religious Freedom Week from June 22-29, 2018. Catholics across the United States are encouraged to pray, reflect, and act in support of religious liberty at home and abroad as the Church seeks to continue "Serving Others in God's Love." The week begins on June 22, the Feast of Saints Thomas More and John Fisher, and ends on June 29, the Solemnity of Saints Peter and Paul. Learn more by visiting

WOMEN'S SUMMER BOOK CLUB

There will be a women's summer book club on seven Monday evenings, June 25 through August 6; starting with 6:00 pm rosary in church; 6:30 pm Mass; 7:00 pm adoration and confession; followed by book discussion in the Rodney Thomas Room from 7:30 – 8:30 pm. Adoration is open until 10:00 pm.

This summer's book is "Walking With Purpose – Seven Priorities That Make Life Work" by Lisa Brenninkmeyer (founder of Walking With Purpose, a Catholic women's scripture study program).

See below information regarding this book.

All women are invited. There is something for every woman. Please register by contacting Lorna Vertrees at 270-766-8687 or lvvertrees94@comcast.net by June 18 to ensure the correct number of books are ordered.

Description of "Walking With Purpose – Seven Priorities That Make Life Work" (taken from Walking With Purpose website):

Does your life feel out of control? Do you feel that you are doing so many things that you are doing none of them well?

Lisa Brenninkmeyer, the founder of Walking with Purpose, understands how it feels when life is stuck on the spin cycle. As a mother of seven, she knows we don't just need to be told what kind of women we should be. We need some help getting there.

Drawing from her own experience of balancing marriage, motherhood, and work inside and outside the home, Lisa helps you uncover the key to living a busy life with inner calm. What's the secret? Identifying key priorities, and doing first what matters most. With humor and wisdom, Lisa will help you:

*Stop striving and rest in God's unconditional love

*Experience new hope in your marriage

*Reach your child's heart

*Create clarity in a cluttered home

*Find friendships that go below the surface and satisfy

*Discover your passion and purpose

Once in awhile, things may seem as if they're under control, but we want to walk with purpose regardless of our circumstances. God wants us to daily experience the joy and contentment that comes from knowing we have given our all to what He considers most important. The abundant and purposeful life we were created to live is just around the corner.

The next Red Cross blood drive will be held in Batcheldor Hall from 9:00 a.m. until 2:00 p.m. on June 24, 2018. Please give the gift of life for our community. There will be a drawing for a $25.00 Kroger gift card. You may contact Joyce Solar at joycesolar@yahoo.com for more information. Thanks for your generosity.
