PARISH LIFE

Therefore put on the full armor of God, so that when the day of evil comes, you may be able to stand your ground, and after you have done everything, to stand.

Ephesians 6:13

Unplanned, the story of Abby Johnson's wrenching transition from director of a Planned Parenthood clinic to vocal opponent of abortion, has proven to be a surprisingly popular film, despite its rather grim theme and considerable institutional opposition. As many have pointed out, Mrs. Johnson is playing a role analogous to that played by Harriet Beecher Stowe in the nineteenth century. While there were plenty of arguments on both sides of the slavery debate at the time, many advocates of slavery underwent a conversion to abolitionism, not because of rational demonstrations but precisely through the influence of Stowe's vivid presentation of the concrete reality of slavery in Uncle Tom's Cabin.

So today, arguments and slogans on both sides of the abortion controversy are well known, and most people seem more or less locked in their respective camps. But Unplanned doesn't so much argue as show. "Abortion" becomes, accordingly, not an abstract issue, but an in-your-face, real, and bloody fact.

The film opens with the event that proved decisive for Abby Johnson herself. As director and administrator of a Planned Parenthood clinic, she was certainly aware of what was happening on the premises, but she had rarely been involved in an actual abortion. One afternoon, she was summoned to the operating room and asked to hold the device that allowed the doctor to see the ultrasound image of the child in the womb. (i.e., to her horror she saw the dismantling of the pre-born child's body, the description of which will not be printed here) With that Abby ran to the bathroom, vomited, and resolved to dissociate herself forever from Planned Parenthood. (Continued next week)

Prayer - Heavenly Father, we pray for the one million mothers who choose to terminate their pregnancies by abortion each year in America. We pray for doctors and other medical personnel that illegitimately refer to abortion as a needed health care procedure and benefit. And, Heavenly Father, we pray the citizens of America will 'put on the full armor of God and having done everything, to stand.' (cf Ephesians 6:13)

“Simon, son of John, do you love me more than these?Follow me.” John 21:16,19

Jesus instructed Peter to lead the Church, and Jesus also tells Peter about the high price he would have to pay. Good stewards recognize that to follow Jesus is a difficult journey requiring great sacrifice. They also know that Jesus will be with them through their joys and sorrows along the way.

SPOTLIGHT ON STEWARDSHIP!

HAVE YOU CONSIDERED . . .

WELCOME COMMITTEE

The Welcome Committee hosts two events a year to welcome new parishioners to the Saint James Parish community. The Fall event includes RCIA's Rite of Welcome and Acceptance. Each committee member is actively committed to making each new family feel welcome. This committee does not hold regular meetings. We come together twice a year to organize and implement Welcome buffets. We truly enjoy showing our Saint James hospitality to all. There is a bond of friendship among the members on this committee and we welcome anyone who would like to join us in this ministry.

JAIL MINISTRY – UPCOMING REQUIRED TRAINING

“Visit the Imprisoned” For parishioners who have signed up through stewardship to work with the St. James jail ministry or are interested in becoming a part of this ministry, a required yearly training session is scheduled for Monday, May 6, at 6:30 pm, at New Horizon Church, 864 W. Rhudes Creek Road, Glendale, KY. This training is required prior to working in this ministry; and the training is offered only limited times during the year. Thus, we urge you to take advantage of the May 6 training. If you wish to serve in this very important ministry and need the required training, please contact Gail Hereford at the St. James' parish office, 270-765-6268, to sign up for the training. Please note that the jail ministry requires only one to two hours per month; women minister to women; and men minister to men.

Mr. Waters is asking for perennial plants from parishioner yards and landscapes. He'd like to plant perennials around the church that will come back each year, so something is blooming around the church and parish office all summer long. This would also help save on the costs of landscaping by not having to pay for the plants. We'd like a broad variety of plants, that grow to different heights, for best placement. Most perennials need to be separated periodically to keep them vibrant, so this is a good way to help the church save money and thin out your plants at the same time. We're not looking for plants larger than 2ft tall. If you are interested in contributing perennials, please email Don at dwaters@stjames-etown.org. Let him know what you have to offer and how tall it grows.
