PARENTING POINTERS

By Susan Vogt, www.SusanVogt.net

Halloween is coming up. Your child might want a scary or elegant costume. No problem. But you might want to suggest the idea of "Who is your hero?" Could you design a costume around a book character or an animal that makes our life a better place? Think creatively.

PARISH LIFE

Catholic Considerations for Our Earthly Passing

Read the full version at respectlifeprogram.org/end-of-life-considerations.

"We prepare for eternal life by choosing to love and follow God. Our journey with Christ includes equipping our consciences to make morally good judgments at the end of life. While no summary can substitute for thorough catechesis, one thing is clear: we are entrusted by God with the gift of life. This obliges us to make use of appropriate, effective medical care. The Church affirms the inviolable dignity of every person, regardless of the duration or extent of the person's incapacity. Nothing diminishes the sanctity of a person's life, or the obligation to protect and care for it. Those who are sick should not be alone, and, even after death, accompaniment continues by praying for those who have passed."

The conclusion of the full version referenced above: "Hope in the Resurrection Those who die in God's grace and friendship live forever with Christ. Heaven is not an abstract idea, but a true and lasting relationship with God that is beyond all earthly description and understanding. We look forward to the resurrection of the dead and everlasting life by preparing now, in hope, for our passage from this life into eternal life. We need not fear. Christ is with us."

Father Martin will celebrate a Requiem Mass for All Souls Day at the St. James Cemetery next Saturday morning, Nov. 2nd at 10am to pray for all our family and friends who have gone before us. The graves will be blessed immediately following Mass. Bring a chair, if needed. Please join us for this inspiring Mass where we will offer the best to God on behalf of all the faithful departed.

After Mass, please join us around 12 Noon at the Dr. and Mrs. Godfrey's property (Northwest corner of the intersection of Ring Road and Pear Orchard Road in E'town) to help set up the crosses for the Cemetery of the Innocents.

Volunteers are asked to please bring a phillips head screwdriver, flat blade screwdriver and rubber mallet, if able. We expect to have approximately 2500 crosses to install. Their positions will be marked ahead of time.

Parishioners are still able to add their family's name to the Right To Life newspaper ad by stopping by the Church Office.

The 40 Days For Life campaign continues in Louisville until November 3rd. Please sign up, if able, for an hour of prayer at: <https://40daysforlife.com/local-campaigns/louisville/>

TODAY'S SCRIPTURES

Thirtieth Sunday in Ordinary Time

First Reading: Sirach 35:12-14, 16-18

Second Reading: 2 Timothy 4:6-8, 16-18

Gospel: Luke 18:9-14

While pride is the root of much sin, humility is the soil in which a life of virtue can grow. The more we recognize our need for God and his mercy, the more we can open ourselves up to the grace he wishes to pour out on us. It is when we think ourselves independent of God that we close ourselves off to his saving mercy and grace.

NEXT WEEK'S SCRIPTURES

Thirty-First Sunday in Ordinary Time

First Reading: Wisdom 11:22-12:2

Second Reading: 2 Thessalonians 1:11-2:2

Gospel: Luke 19:1-10

Knights' 42nd Year for Tootsie Roll Collection

"I have fought the good fight, I have finished the course, I have kept the faith; in the future there is laid up for me the crown of righteousness....and not only to me, but also to all who have loved his appearing."      2 Tim 4:7-8

This message from St. Paul assures us that those who endure hardships and sacrifices, yet devote their lives to the service of God and others, will be taken care of. Stewards always place their trust in God.

Angel Tree Program 2019: We will still have some families that will have their children on forms like we had last year. New this year is what is called the Affordable Christmas. In addition to handing out angel tree forms we will be collecting toys and other items the weekends of: Nov.10th AND 17th. (The Angel Tree will be available beginning Nov. 9th). It is felt that this program will allow the parents to feel that they are truly giving their child a Christmas present. I ask for your support this year so that Saint James does its part in bringing a Merry Christmas to the children of Hardin County.
