PARISH LIFE

25 Years of the Gospel of Life, conclusion

“Governments and international institutions promote abortion and euthanasia as marks of progress and freedom. But this is a false and perverse understanding in which freedom is equated with absolute individualism. True freedom is inherently relational, recognizing that God has entrusted us to one another. As cultures and societies fail to recognize these objective truths, everything becomes relative, and all principles are called into question—even the fundamental right to life. However, the blood of Christ’s sacrifice remains our constant hope. Christ’s gift of himself on the Cross reveals how precious life truly is and gives us the strength to commit ourselves to building a culture of life. Christ’s blood, shed for us, promises that in God’s plan death will be no more, and life will be victorious.

Society as a whole must respect, defend and promote the dignity of every human person, at every moment and in every condition of that person's life. Each life is a gift from God and ultimately belongs to him. He has sole authority over life and death. We are therefore called to reverence and love every human person, loving our neighbors as ourselves. It is our responsibility to care for and protect human life, especially the lives of the most vulnerable among us.

Having received the gift of the Gospel of Life, we are the people of life and a people for life. It is our duty to proclaim the Gospel of Life to the world. To proclaim Jesus is to proclaim life itself. Gratitude and joy at the incomparable dignity of the human person impel us to bring the Gospel of Life to the hearts of all people and make it penetrate every part of society. In every child which is born, and in every person who lives or dies, we see the image of God's glory. We celebrate this glory in every human being, a sign of the living God, an icon of Jesus Christ.”

CONNECT. EDUCATE. INSPIRE.

“There are different kinds of spiritual gifts but the same Spirit; there are different forms of service but the same Lord; there are different works but the same God who produces all of them in everyone. To each individual the manifestation of the Spirit is given for some benefit.” 1 Corinthians 12:4-7

PARISH LIFE

We have all been watching the changes to our daily lives brought on by COVID-19 and the restrictions Governor Beshear has put into place to keep us safe and healthy. Kentucky is starting to reopen a little at a time. On May 22, groups of 10 people or fewer could congregate. Restaurants can open to 33% capacity. Masks are strongly recommended. 6 ft. of social distancing is required for all. As the President of the Forever Young Club, I was hoping enough changes for reopening could be made for us to have a June meeting. Our meeting is scheduled for June 9. Sad to say that due to the schedule for reopening Kentucky, our June 2020 meeting will need to be canceled. Every member of our group is in the most vulnerable population of this pandemic. There is no reasonable way we can have a meeting and maintain the 6 ft. of social distance. Most importantly the date for groups of 50 or more to congregate is not until June 29, 2020. Say prayers that we will be able to meet on August 11 at 6 PM for our monthly meal and socialization. More information will be shared closer to time. I hope everyone and their families are staying well. #TeamKentucky
