SAINT JAMES MINISTERIO HISPANO!

“You are thinking not as God does, but as human beings do.” This Gospel rebuke of Jesus to Peter applies to us all. In particular, we tend to think that to be successful in our efforts to win people over to the Gospel and the pro-life message, we have to be popular. This is a human way of thinking, that does not give enough room to the role that the cross, and persecution, play in the plan God has for us. The fact is that people are converted by the truth of the message and by the integrity and faithfulness with which we convey that message even in the face of opposition. People are not ultimately inspired or converted by crowd-pleasers, but by God-pleasers. Jesus, of course, gives the primary example of this... Success does not require popularity; rather, it requires fidelity. This is a particularly valuable lesson in relation to our efforts to proclaim the sanctity of human life in the face of abortion. People who attack the messenger are, nevertheless, impacted by the message. That’s the very reason they are attacking.

The second reading illustrates the goal of our efforts, namely, not to simply bring people to “believe” in the sanctity of life, but to have them practice it. We are called to respond concretely to the needs of the people we proclaim are sacred. The hungry must be fed, not just spoken about with sympathy. The unborn must be saved from the violence of abortion, not just mentioned in our prayers. Whether it’s a candidate for public office or a Christian in the pews, just “believing” in the right to life is not enough. The pertinent question is, “What will you do to protect those who have that right?” ~ Priests for Life

The St. James Respect Life Committee thanks all of you who donated to, prayed for or participated in the Clarity Walk 2021 this Saturday morning. We are sincerely grateful for your support for this awesome organization!

Please note the following activities and their dates:

On the weekends of Sept. 25/26 and Oct. 2/3 Respect Life Committee members will be at the Church exits collecting signatures for the annual Pro-Life ad. That ad is published on or about January 22nd each year in the Elizabethtown News Enterprise.

The Cemetery of the Innocents will be erected on the front lawn of Dr. and Mrs. Godfrey’s home again this year. Approximately 3,000 crosses represent the average number of abortion victims EACH DAY in the United States of America.

Thank you.

Eucharistic Adoration

20th Anniversary:

"In my childhood, my parents used to take me to The Shrine of Our Lady of Perpetual Help on Saturday afternoon for Adoration and Benediction. The Church was always filled with people from different parishes, attending the Eucharistic Holy Hour, concluded with Benediction and incense. I loved that solemnity ritual. When St. James started Eucharistic Adoration to pray for vocations for Priesthood and Religious Life, I began attending weekly. I find the quiet time to be close to Jesus. With my Magnificat, I can read the Gospel and Meditation of the Day from different authors, and the Lives of the Saints. I also enjoy reading the explanation of different religious paintings which enrich my knowledge." ~ (Saint James parishioner)
