Trigésimo segundo Domingo del Tiempo Ordinario

Comunidad Hispana-Misa Dominical en Español.

Eduquémonos en la Fe

Bautismo y Confirmación

El Bautismo

Es el rito de iniciación en la comunidad cristiana, por el cual el 'Espíritu' nos hace miembros del Cuerpo de Cristo y "los unos de los otros". El bautismo revela la igualdad y dignidad de cada miembro de la comunidad. Nos exige rechazar el pecado y evaluar nuestros valores, decisiones y estilos de vida. En El Bautismo profesamos nuestro compromiso con las creencias, valores y visión de la iglesia. Nos invita a una vocación de santidad y a la práctica de la caridad. El Bautismo nos incorpora a la vida, muerte y resurrección de Cristo. El Bautismo nos hace discípulos ante el mundo, buscando el Reino de Dios en nuestra vida cotidiana. Los bautizados debemos vivir como luces en la oscuridad, imitando el ejemplo de Cristo.

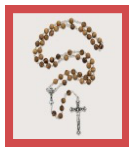

La Confirmación

En La Confirmación, nuestra Fe y pertenencia al Cuerpo de Cristo es reforzada. La Confirmación nos conecta a una comunidad mayor. En La Confirmación recibimos los dones del Espíritu Santo (sabiduría, entendimiento, consejo, ciencia, piedad, fortaleza y temor de Dios). El Espíritu nos mueve a imitar el amor y el servicio de Cristo y de los santos. En La Confirmación renovamos nuestro compromiso de participar en la obra y misión de la iglesia. El Espíritu Santo nos inspira a la acción evangélica que incluye el desarrollo humano y el trabajo para acabar con la injusticia. La Confirmación nos llama a compartir la misión de Cristo de promover la vida y dignidad.

Por El Bautismo somos incorporados al Cuerpo de Cristo, enviados a la misión de Cristo. La Confirmación enriquece a los bautizados con la fuerza del Espíritu Santo para que puedan dar mejor testimonio de Cristo en la palabra y obra. Ungidos por El Espíritu Santo los cristianos fortalecen sus lazos con la Iglesia y se equipan mejor para llevar a cabo la misión de amor y servicio de la Iglesia.

Our Lady of La Veng

Today's readings bring us a "tale of two widows," both of whom gave when they had every human reason not to. The widow in the first reading prepared something for Elijah although she didn't have enough for herself and her son. The widow in the Gospel passage gave all her savings.

The Lord's prophet reassured the first widow; the Lord himself praised the second. We, the Church, are not widowed. The Bridegroom is with us, and it is from him that we draw the courage to be generous – not just with food and money, but with our witness to the Gospel, and with our taking of risks for building a world of justice and a culture of life. Some feel that they have enough "business to mind" with their own lives, and therefore don't want to get involved in the lives of others who, for example, are facing the temptation to abort a child. "I have enough problems of my own" is the common temptation. It seems that we barely have enough energy and attention to give our own problems, let alone those of others.

Yet this is precisely where the lesson of the widow's mite comes in. It applies more to this than to how much money we give away. The human heart expands when it touches God, and it expands to take in the needs, the "business," of every vulnerable human being. We no longer measure our giving by how much we have; we measure it by how much the other needs. Then, like the miracle that surprised the widow whom Elijah visited, we find our capacity for love and concern is greater than we imagined.

We also carefully measure our risk, and are tempted to say that we've quickly reached the limit of how much we are willing to risk. But the demands of justice, and of the protection of life, require that we measure our risk not against how many other things we may lose, but against what the victim of injustice stands to lose. In fighting for the unborn, we are defending those who are losing their very lives – and therefore all the goods and rights they might possess in life. What we risk losing for defending them is little to nothing in comparison. The lesson of the widow's mite applies again. Indeed, the tale of the two widows is simply a reflection of the fundamental teaching, "Greater love than this no one has, than to lay down his life for his friends." Priests for Life

A hearty thank you to all who helped install the crosses of the Cemetery of the Innocents on Dr. & Mrs. Godfrey's lawn last weekend! We hope to see you there again on December 4th.

Please plan to attend the Right to Life Kentucky Heartland sponsored free presentation: "Human Trafficking - Too Close to Home", next Sunday, November 14, 3:30 pm at the Historic State Theater. What you learn will surprise you.

Angel Tree Collection

Cheri Ellis-Reeves and Deacon Karl Drerup will be collecting toys, clothes, and money again this year for the Annual Angel Tree Program.

They will be collecting items on the weekends of November 13th/14th, 20th/21st, and 27th/28th for the benefit of children within our greater Hardin County area.

Just like last year Cheri will have names of individual children that you can shop for, while Deacon Karl will accept any unwrapped gift, gift card, cash, or checks. Checks are to be made to Helping Hand of Hope. Thank you and God Bless!

Eucharistic Adoration 20th Anniversary:

 "When on my knees before our exposed Lord, I am able to give back a small portion of every day that Christ is watching over me; to seek to unburden my soul of that which stands between me and a full life with Christ; and to pray for God to call forth those among us to help us achieve this, through religious vocations." ~ (a parishioner)

Call 270-737-5213 to schedule an hour.

Bulletin Deadline: WEDNESDAY, two weeks prior to publication. Email dsears@stjames-etown.org

Thanksgiving Dinner - On Thanksgiving Day, area churches and Helping Hand of Hope co-sponsor a Thanksgiving Dinner - hosted at Saint James Catholic School, 401 Robinbrooke Boulevard. This meal is available to families or individuals who are unable to prepare a meal of their own. This year it will be delivery or carryout only. If you would like to volunteer time in preparation, serving or delivering meals, sign up at <https://www.signupgenius.com/go/20F0848A8A629A6F85-thanksgiving6> or call 270-268-6246. If you would like to donate food contact Cheri Ellis-Reeves at bcjjj@comcast.net or 270-268-6246.

If you would like to have a meal delivered, please contact Helping Hand of Hope at 270-769-3092 by November 22nd.

We will have our annual collection at all Masses this weekend after all the Masses.

The Forever Young Club will meet THIS coming Tuesday, November 9th at 6:30 p.m. in Batchelder Hall. A light dinner will be provided. We are excited about getting together again and we hope to see lots of you there. We would love for you to bring a friend!

At this meeting, we will be discussing plans for the upcoming year.

Kentucky Heartland, Inc.

"Human Trafficking – Too Close to Home"

by Marissa Castellanos,
Director of the Bakhita Empowerment Initiative of Catholic Charities in Louisville, Kentucky.

Ms. Castellanos is a dynamic, impactful and evangelistic presenter who shares the harsh reality and tremendous gravity of Human Trafficking right here in our area. She paints a clear picture of the depth of its roots, why it has been minimized, why it must be unveiled, and how the community can take small yet heroic and combative steps to advocate against this gruesome crime.

Date: Sunday, November 14, 2021

Time: 3:30 pm – Doors open at 3:00 pm

Place: WesBanco Gallery at the Historic State Theater
209 West Dixie Avenue, Elizabethtown, Kentucky 42701

THIS IS A FREE EVENT FOR ALL!

Parents, please use discretion for youth younger than eighth grade.

If you would like to donate any full-size toiletry item for a HT victim, a collection box will be available at sign-in.

For more information about this event, please contact Joey Redmon at 270-723-4724, email Right to Life Kentucky Heartland at lifeky@gmail.com or visit www.kylife.com.

MIDDLE SCHOOL
Ministry SURVEY

The parish survey conducted in March 2020 identified our middle school aged youth as a target audience for emphasis in our strategic plan. The surveys below are part of that plan to assess the needs of our middle school aged youth. The surveys seek feedback from current middle school aged youth, their parents, and our high school aged youth in order to provide a full picture of how best to prepare and implement future programming.

THIS WEEKEND'S READINGS

Thirty-second Sunday in Ordinary Time

First Reading: 1 Kings 17:10-16
Second Reading: Hebrews 9:24-28
Gospel: Mark 12:38-44

"... Amen, I say to you, this poor widow put in more than all the other contributors to the treasury. For they have all contributed from their surplus wealth, but she, from her poverty, has contributed all she had, her whole livelihood." ~ Mark 12:43-44

What made the widow give from her need? Maybe her state in life made her realize that relying on God is the way she had survived in the past. What in our lives keeps us from this same act of faith?

NEXT WEEKEND'S READINGS

Thirty-third Sunday in Ordinary Time

First Reading: Deuteronomy 12:1-3
Second Reading: Hebrews 10:11-14, 18
Gospel: Mark 13:24-32

Estate Planning and Charitable Giving Seminar
6:30-8:00 p.m. Tuesday, November 16
Parish Office Basement

RSVP to Jennifer Moran 270-765-6268 ext. 110

Estate Planning is really for everyone! It is about protecting what you have, for you during your lifetime and those you love, after you are gone. It ensures what you have gets to the people and causes you care about, the way you want, when you want. If you were to die today, are you comfortable everything will be taken care of the way you wanted? An Estate Plan will legally ensure your legacy is handled the way you want. As stewards of God's gifts, we invite you to join us for this seminar where we will discuss estate planning and various options for Charitable Giving which should be an integral part of your plans during your lifetime or within your Estate Plan. Hosted by Ben Humphries (ESQ) of the Kentucky Estate Planning Law Center and parishioner Gregory Schrecke, CPA of ResultPoint Financial Advisors.

Saint James Catholic Church Endowment

A gift can help Saint James Catholic Church today....and tomorrow!

The Saint James Catholic Church Endowment was established to provide a long-term financial security for the parish while supporting its mission. The endowment is meant to grow the principal of the fund while generating income each year from the interest. There is no limit to the number of donors who may contribute to the fund and a gift of any size is encouraged.

The fund has been established with the Central Kentucky Community Foundation and will remain within its management. The intention of the donor who established the fund is to provide a steady source of income for Saint James Catholic Church that will be used where most needed. The Saint James Finance Council will decide each year how to best use the income from the fund.

Anyone interested in supporting the endowment with a gift, may contact the Central Kentucky Community Foundation at 270-737-8393 or visit the website ckcf4people.org and review "our funds" under the giving tab. Please feel free to contact Jennifer Moran at 270-765-7011 ext. 110 or jmoran@stjames-etown.org with any questions.
