Anointing of the Sick

Pope John Paul II designated February 11th each year as World Day of the Sick. In order to recognize this World Day of the Sick, the priest celebrant will offer the Anointing of the Sick after all Masses on the week-end of February 12th & 13th. If you are anticipating an upcoming surgical procedure, are in poor health, or suffering the effects of aging and are in need of this sacrament, please plan to stay for a short while after Mass on February 12th or 13th. We will direct all who stay after the Mass for the reception of this sacrament.

Quinto Domingo De Tiempo Ordinario Comunidad Hispana

Eduquémonos en la fé

Fueron 26, martirizados el mismo día, 5 de febrero del año 1597.

En el año 1549 San Francisco Javier llegó al Japón y convirtió a muchos paganos.

Ya en el año 1597 eran varios los miles de cristianos en aquel país. Y llegó al gobierno un emperador sumamente cruel y vicioso, el cual ordenó que todos los misioneros católicos debían abandonar el Japón en el término de seis meses. Pero los misioneros, en vez de huir del país, lo que hicieron fue esconderse, para poder seguir ayudando a los cristianos. Fueron descubiertos y martirizados brutalmente. Los que murieron en este día en Nagasaki fueron 26. Tres jesuitas, seis franciscanos y 16 laicos católicos japoneses, que eran catequistas y se habían hecho terciarios franciscanos.

Los mártires jesuitas fueron: San Pablo Miki, un japonés de familia de la alta clase social, hijo de un capitán del ejército y muy buen predicador: San Juan Goto y Santiago Kisai, dos hermanos coadjutores jesuitas. Los franciscanos eran: San Felipe de Jesús, un mexicano que había ido a misionar al Asia. San Gonzalo García que era de la India, San Francisco Blanco, San Pedro Bautista, superior de los franciscanos en el Japón y San Francisco de San Miguel.

Entre los laicos estaban: un soldado: San Cayo Francisco; un médico: San Francisco de Miako; un Coreano: San Leon Karasuma, y tres muchachos de trece años que ayudaban a misa a los sacerdotes: los niños: San Luis Ibarqui, San Antonio Deyman, y San Totomaskasaky, cuyo padre fue también martirizado.

A los 26 católicos les cortaron la oreja izquierda, y así ensangrentados fueron llevados en pleno invierno a pie, de pueblo en pueblo, durante un mes, para escarmentar y atemorizar a todos los que quisieran hacerse cristianos.

Al llegar a Nagasaki les permitieron confesarse con los sacerdotes, y luego los crucificaron, atándolos a las cruces con cuerdas y cadenas en piernas y brazos y sujetándolos al madero con una argolla de hierro al cuello. Entre una cruz y otra había la distancia de un metro y medio.

La Iglesia Católica los declaró santos en 1862.

• Hora santa todos los jueves a las 7:00pm en la iglesia .

From Sinners to Apostles

Saint John Paul II wrote the following words to all women who have had abortions: "The Father of mercies is ready to give you his forgiveness and his peace in the Sacrament of Reconciliation.

To the same Father and to his mercy you can with sure hope entrust your child. With the friendly and expert help and advice of other people, and as a result of your own painful experience, you can be among the most eloquent defenders of everyone's right to life. Through your commitment to life, whether by accepting the birth of other children or by welcoming and caring for those most in need of someone to be close to them, you will become promoters of a new way of looking at human life." (The Gospel of Life)

Throughout the country, pro-life people counsel women not to have abortions. Those who do so do not approach these women as strangers. Rather, these pro-life counselors too know what it is like to struggle with evil and to be drawn by temptation. They minister as repentant sinners, quite familiar with the struggle against evil.

Likewise, many Catholics pray the rosary in front of abortion clinics. They do not do this to harass or intimidate women. Rather, they do it as an act of repentance. As they stand on the public sidewalk, they do not say "pray for those sinners," but rather, over and over, "pray for us sinners." From that stance of repentance, they can reach out to those who are on their way to making a terrible mistake. By speaking up and reaching out in love to prevent abortion, these faithful people try to make up in some way for the silence and fear that keep so many others from doing anything to save lives.

When we help our people realize that pro-life activity flows from humble repentance, we lay the foundation for calling more of them to be prophets of life, like Isaiah, and apostles of life, like Peter, by joining actively in the pro-life mission of the Church. ~ Priests for Life

INVITATION TO BE A HOSPITALITY MINISTER/DOOR GREETER -

Since all church doors are open again at each Sunday Mass, the parish would like to have a welcoming presence at each of the doors at each weekend Mass. In order to do this, additional volunteers are needed to welcome our parishioners and guests as they arrive. This is an ideal "family" ministry with young and old being able to participate. Greeters should arrive 30 minutes prior to the start of Mass. Please review the ministry description on page 19 of the St. James Volunteer Opportunities booklet included in your recent stewardship packet. We invite you to contact Linda Howard at 270-234-6493 or linda.howard@kctcs.edu and/or mark No. 40 Hospitality - Mass Door Greeters on your stewardship card to volunteer for this important ministry! Thank you!
