PARISH LIFE

How Do We Change Our Culture of Death?

Pope John Paul II noted that the structure of man's sin is characterized or manifest on a universal scale in our Culture of Death. He pointed out that the powerful are easily able to manhandle the weak (e.g., abortion and euthanasia).

The culture of death is not the result of philosophy or decrepit ethics, or political theory. The culture of death is a result of sin committed freely by persons.

Thus it is fundamentally a personal problem, not a political one. So, the battle will not be won solely by a political action or movement, because the battle is not against human beings or arid philosophies, but is a battle against sin: "For our struggle is not with flesh and blood but with the principalities, with the powers, with the world rulers of this present darkness, with the evil spirits in the heavens" (Eph. 6:12).

Therefore, first and foremost, we must first recognize God's saving action and saving mission, and then participate in it. This has always been, and will always be the Church's role. We love because He loved us first (1 Jn. 4:19), and we spread that love through our testimony to the nations (Acts 1:8).

We must try to influence our culture with our words and deeds, realizing that the purpose of evangelization is always to introduce man to the Person of Christ, and the Person of Christ to man, that man might enter into His mystical body, the Church.

Thus, through grace attained by turning to Him, the culture of death can indeed be transformed, simply because the Gospel always has the power to transform the hearts of men...even when the culture seems most evil, hopeless and perverse.

Solemnidad de Nuestro Señor Jesucristo, Rey del Universo

¡Bendito el que viene en el nombre del Señor!

¡Bendito el reino que llega, el reino de nuestro padre David!

Hoy cerramos el ciclo litúrgico con la celebración de Cristo Rey, celebración que sirve de bisagra entre el final del presente ciclo, al que pone el broche, y el nuevo. La clave de esta celebración se encuentra en la comprensión que tengamos de este título de Rey, pues esta comprensión marcará nuestra perspectiva y balance de lo vivido como cristianos a lo largo del año anterior y también marcará nuestras expectativas con respecto al futuro que se abre.

El evangelio de Lucas forma parte del relato de la crucifixión, diríamos que es el momento culminante de un relato que encierra todo la teología lucana: Jesús salvador del hombre, y muy especialmente de aquellos más desvalidos. Lucas, con este relato nos quiere presentar algo más profundo y extraordinario que la simple crucifixión de un profeta. Por ello se llama la atención de cómo el pueblo "estaba mirando" y escuchando. Y comienza todo un diálogo y una polémica sobre la "salvación" y el "salvarse" que es uno de los conceptos claves de la obra de Lucas. Los adversarios se obstinan en que Jesús, el Mesías según el texto, no puede salvarse y no puede salvar a otros. Además está crucificado y ya ello es inconveniente excesivo para que el letrero de la cruz ("rey de los judíos"=Mesías) pierda todo su sentido jurídico y se convierta en sarcasmo. Está claro por qué ha sido condenado: por una razón política, acusado de ir contra Roma, en nombre de un mesianismo que ni pretendió, ni aceptó de sus seguidores.

El malhechor lo invoca con su nombre propio ¡Jesús!, no como el de Mesías o el de Rey o incluso el de Hijo de Dios. Esto es algo que ha llamado poderosamente la atención de los intérpretes. Es verdad que en la Biblia, en el nombre hay toda una significación que debe ser santo y seña de quien lo lleva. "Jesús" significa: "Dios salva" o "Dios es mi salvador". Es una plegaria, pues, al crucificado, pero Lucas entiende que en todo aquello está Dios por medio. Es decir, que Dios no está al margen de lo que está aconteciendo en la cruz, en el sufrimiento de Jesús y de los mismos malhechores. La interpelación del buen ladrón como plegaria es para Lucas toda una enseñanza de que el crucificado es el verdadero salvador y de que por medio de su vida y de su muerte, Dios salva. Por tanto encontraremos salvación y salvación inmediata: "hoy estarás conmigo en el paraíso". Esta es una fórmula bíblica cerrada para expresar la vida después de la muerte. No sabemos cómo ha llegado a Lucas este diálogo de la cruz, pero la verdad es que es lo más original de todos los evangelistas sobre esta escena de la pasión. Jesús es verdaderamente rey, aunque al margen de todas las expectativas políticas. El "nudo gordiano" se rompe, si queremos a tajo, por la palabra de vida que Jesús ofrece en nombre de Dios.

• Enjoy homemade soups, salads, breads & elegant desserts
• Encounter Jesus in the gift of the Eucharist during Adoration

RSVP to attend on the Parish website!

Advent by Candlelight is a mini-retreat hosted by women of our parish for women of our parish!

ALL ABOUT THE Advent Wreath. Usually made up of evergreen branches or boughs placed in a circle, topped with four candles. Used as a prayerful way to reflect the passage of the Advent season. The EVERGREENS remind us of the everlasting life promised to us by the gift of Jesus Christ, who came among us to save us from sin and death. A PINK CANDLE for the third Sunday reminds us that the time of Christ's arrival is fast approaching and we must prepare. The act of LIGHTING THE CANDLES banishes the darkness; a reminder of Jesus Christ, the Light who has come into the world through his birth, and who continues to shine brightly through his Church. PRAYER: O God, as light comes from this candle, may the blessing of Jesus Christ come to us, warming our hearts and brightening our way. May Christ our Saviour bring life into the darkness of this world, and to us, as we wait for his coming. Amen.
