PARISH LIFE

Life: An "Epiphany" of God

"Life is always a good. ... Why is life a good? This question is found everywhere in the Bible, and from the very first pages it receives a powerful and amazing answer. The life which God gives man is quite different from the life of all other living creatures, inasmuch as man, although formed from the dust of the earth (cf. Gen 2:7, 3:19; Job 34:15; Ps 103:14; 104:29), is a manifestation of God in the world, a sign of his presence, a trace of his glory (cf. Gen 1:26-27; Ps 8:6). This is what Saint Irenaeus of Lyons wanted to emphasize in his celebrated definition: 'Man, living man, is the glory of God'. Man has been given a sublime dignity, based on the intimate bond which unites him to his Creator: in man there shines forth a reflection of God himself" (The Gospel of Life, n. 34).

The opening and closing prayer, the Preface, and the readings of today's feast all work powerfully together to enable us to communicate the message of the sanctity of life. Epiphany is about "revelation" and "manifestation," and that, of course is what Christ does. Not only does he reveal the Father to us, but he reveals us to ourselves. He shows us that this human nature of ours, that can be so troublesome and burdened, has in fact been renewed. The Preface proclaims, "You made us new by the glory of his immortal nature." That, indeed is "the promise in Christ Jesus through the Gospel" that Paul proclaims to the Ephesians in the second reading. As an older Epiphany prayer says, it is a promise that God will draw us "to the life where your Spirit makes all life complete." Death is no longer the final word for the human family, and this gift is shared not only by one nation or one people, but by all humanity.

The universal offer of God's salvation extends to those still in the womb. Epiphany not only tells us that there are no national or ethnic boundaries to God's call, but that there are no artificial boundaries between "born" and "unborn," "wanted" or "unwanted," "convenient" or "inconvenient."

Moreover, the "epiphany" most needed in our time is the ability to see beyond the appearances of those who are smaller and weaker, and beyond the illusion created when some are declared "non-persons" under the law. Breaking through all this darkness and blurriness is the clear light of Christ, which shines on every human life without exception, bringing those lives God's love and giving us the sacred obligation to love them as well.

~ Priests for Life

Solemnidad de la Epifanía del Señor

Hoy es uno de esos días en que todos quisiéramos de nuevo ser niños. ¡Qué alegría y qué ilusión al habernos ido a la cama pensando: "Esta noche pasarán por casa los Magos de Oriente y dejarán en ella muchos regalos para mí" El ejemplo de estos "magos" (en la actualidad equivale a una especie de astrónomos y no a aquellos que aparecen y desaparecen un conejo de su sombrero) es un ejemplo de fe y de sencillez. Su vida estaba resuelta. Eran felices. Tenían una familia maravillosa. ¿Para qué despeinarse? ¡Vaya ganas de complicarse la vida! Y sin embargo, ven la estrella y no tardan en seguirla. Tenían fe y supieron descubrir en el brillo de esa estrella diminuta, que a ratos se les escabullía, el paso de Dios por sus vidas. Y es que, hace falta tener los oídos interiores bien limpios para escuchar la voz de Dios. El rey Herodes, a través de estos magos, recibió también una invitación de Dios para sumarse a los que adorarían al Niño. Pero la basura del egoísmo y el ruido del poder acumulado en sus oídos, no le permitieron escuchar. Se quedó en su palacio y se encució el alma con la muerte de tantos inocentes. La sencillez de los magos, se nos presenta unida a su fe, en el momento del encuentro con el Niño: Y de hinojos le adoraron, abriendo sus cofres, le ofrecieron como dones de oro, incienso y mirra...

Estos hombres venían de oriente. Ellos habían visto una estrella diferente a las demás. Una estrella nacida hacía unos días, lo que equivaldría a un fenómeno extraordinario. Estos hombres los recordamos hoy. Hace más de dos mil años que observaron el fenómeno de la estrella, y aún hoy se observa este milagro. Una estrella ha nacido, y nace en esta Navidad, y nacerá en las siguientes navidades. Esa Estrella la llamamos Jesús. Un Niño nacido un lejano 24 de diciembre, y que sigue recibiendo la visita de unos magos cada año. Unos magos que eran de oriente y que hoy los niños del mundo quieren muchísimo. Esos magos le llevaron unos regalos al Niño Dios, pero no se dieron cuenta de que ellos fueron quienes recibieron el mayor regalo, el conocimiento de Dios a través de la Fe. Ojalá que en este día, escuchemos la voz del recién nacido. Y si no la percibimos, lavémonos los oídos, curemos nuestra sordera de alma y no nos quedemos solos y tristes como Herodes.
