PARISH LIFE

Three Key Themes

This week our nation honors the dream of equal human rights articulated by Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. On January 22, we also mark the anniversary of the most egregious violation of human rights through the Supreme Court decision Roe vs. Wade, which permitted the killing of children in the womb. During these days, Christians also observe the Week of Prayer for Christian Unity. These three themes intersect powerfully. We pray that Christians will unite in effective service to all who are deprived of their rights, and bring about a Culture of Life, Justice, and Love.

“Called to be holy...a light to the nations...baptized as sons and daughters of God.” These themes, drawn from each of today’s readings, speak to us of our call as individuals and as a Church. Central to every vocation is the call to holiness. The name of the Second Vatican Council’s key document on the Church, “Lumen Gentium,” is taken from today’s first reading. It reminds us that we are a light to all people, primarily by the way we live, both in our private lives and in the way we conduct our activities and shape our policies as a Church and as a society. We have three observances whose themes converge powerfully to show us in what direction those lives and policies must go, and in what direction that “light to the nations” is to be shed.

Dr. King did not only advocate for the equality of African Americans. His advocacy was for the equality of every human being. His niece, Dr. Alveda King, is now a full time pro-life activist with Priests for Life and declares that the civil rights movement of today is the pro-life movement.

On January 22, we also mark the anniversary of the most egregious violation of human rights through the Supreme Court decision Roe vs. Wade, which permitted the killing of children in the womb...[Thankfully this lamentable ruling has been overturned. But the battle over abortion now continues at the state level!]

During these days, Christians also observe the Week of Prayer for Christian Unity. John Paul II, in his encyclical “Ut Unum Sint,” called for ecumenical collaboration in the works of justice and human rights.

...We pray that Christians will unite in effective service to all who are deprived of their rights, and bring about a Culture of Life, Justice, and Love.

~ Priests for Life

Segundo Domingo de tiempo Ordinario

En el Evangelio de Juan historia y símbolo se mezclan. En el texto de hoy, el simbolismo consiste sobre todo en evocaciones de texto conocidos del Antiguo Testamento que revelan algo respecto de la identidad de Jesús. Juan ha visto signos y puede dar testimonio. Puede hablar de Jesús con palabras que son significativas para su gente: el Cordero, el que está lleno del Espíritu y el Enviado, son términos que evocan expectativas del Antiguo Testamento y que llevan al pueblo a volver la mirada hacia Jesús. Esa es siempre la función del profeta: que su palabra mueva los corazones hacia Dios. Juan que tenía muchos seguidores, pero tenía tan claro que Jesús era el Salvador y que él sólo era el profeta que anunciaba, que viéndolo a Jesús, sólo a Él tienen que seguir. Ojalá que cada uno de nosotros también no esté centrado en sí mismo, sino en Jesús y que toda nuestra vida, todo nuestro decir y que también como comunidad y como Iglesia estemos referenciados al Cordero de Dios.

The Knights of Columbus will be at the doors of the church following all the Masses on the weekend of January 28th/29th collecting for the Seminarians of the Archdiocese of Louisville.

Thank you for your support of our Seminarians.

Special Thanks to Our Electronic Givers

Saint James Parish thanks our families who are giving their tithing contributions electronically. Their consistent giving is a consistent blessing to our parish.

Each month our parish receives a steady and predictable stream of income from those donors who have made the commitment to give to God first by having a designated contribution automatically transferred to our parish through our Online Giving Program.

If you would like to learn more about this easy, safe and secure way of giving, please contact

Deacon Dean Sears at 270-765-6268.

"We are many parts. We are all one body.
And the gifts we have, we are given to share.
May the Spirit of Love, Make Us One Indeed."
~ refrain from the hymn " We Are Many Parts"

Whenever I look at the stained-glass windows at St James, I am reminded of these lines in the refrain from this hymn. A stained-glass window is made of numerous "parts" (panes) to make the window whole - one body. If there are missing parts, the window is not complete and is weakened. It needs the many parts to be fully functional.

This is like our parish - we need the many "parts" to make the body of the parish whole. If there are some of us missing, our parish is not complete and not as strong.

Please keep our parish whole and strong by completing and submitting your stewardship form as soon as possible. Please share with the parish the gifts - time, talent, and treasure - you have been given to by God. Early submission of your stewardship form aids St. James in preparing next year's budget and in planning the programs and good works of our ministries. Thank you!
