PARISH LIFE

If a tiny baby could think, it would be afraid of birth. To leave the only world it has known would seem a kind of death. But immediately after birth the child finds itself in loving arms, showered with affection and cared for at every moment. Surely the baby would say, "I was foolish to doubt God's Plan for me. This is a beautiful life."

For the Christian, passing through death is really a birth into a new and better world.

We wish to THANK the St. James Parish community for their prayers, love and kind words of comfort.

Ed had a passion for the unborn. More than one person at the funeral home conveyed their belief that the babies were there in heaven waiting for Ed.

Thank you,
Shirley Cecil & Family

The Widowed Friends Group will be meeting at 5:30 p.m. on Wednesday, March 15th in the Rodney Thomas Room. Please bring a dish to share for a potluck meal. We will also be planning activities for the rest of the year. All widowed members of the parish are welcomed to come and join us. If you have any questions, please call Cherri Spalding @ 270-307-5441.

Testify Musical Lenten Program

"For God so loved the world ..." is such a familiar Bible verse. The Season of Lent pulls us back in to the reality of the love Jesus showed as he stretched out his arms between Heaven and Earth and gave his life for us. Testify invites you to spend an hour walking the path to Calvary with Jesus as they present the Stations of the Cross through music and reflections Sunday, March 19, 4:00 pm at St. John the Baptist Catholic Church. Potluck will follow in the Parish Hall.

Eucharistic Adoration ~
Pray for Vocations

During Eucharistic Adoration many pray for an increase in vocations and for an end to all abortion. If you want to learn more about Eucharistic Adoration or would like to schedule an hour of Adoration, please call 270-737-5213.

III Domingo de Cuaresma
Señor, tú eres el Salvador del mundo. Dame de tu agua viva para que no vuelva a tener sed.
El evangelio que nos presenta San Juan es un texto difícil por su extensión y por su simbología, pero con ello busca el evangelista dar fuerza a la narración. Imaginemos a Jesús cansado y sentado en el pozo. Llega una samaritana para sacar agua. Los samaritanos son despreciados por el pueblo judío. Sin embargo, Jesús no lo duda y le pide a esta mujer samaritana «agua para beber». Imaginemos la escena. ¿Qué cara pondría esta mujer cuando un judío le pide a ella, una mujer pagana, le dé agua? Jesús que nota su perplejidad, su asombro, le dice: «Si conocieras el don de Dios y quién te pide agua, se la pedirías tú, y él te daría agua viva». Aún queda más asombrada cuando Jesús le dice que ha tenido cinco maridos y que el que tiene ahora no lo es. La mujer le pide a Jesús el agua viva porque desde ese momento sabe que Jesús es diferente. Esta mujer ha descubierto la fe y se pone en manos de Dios. Muchas personas ni siquiera tienen intención de acercarse a Él. Pasan sin dejar que el amor infinito de Dios entre en sus vidas. Los que nos decimos «creyentes o seguidores» deberíamos mirar nuestro interior, eso es lo que significa la simbología del pozo, y ver en quién ponemos nuestra fe; Jesús nos ha dicho como es realmente Dios, un Padre que siempre está presente en nuestra vida aunque nosotros lo dejemos de lado.

Cada uno de nosotros debe reflexionar como se encuentra su fe, porque en estos tiempos de incredulidad creciente es fácil dejarse llevar. Para no sucumbir debemos crecer en la fe, conocer más al Dios que anunció Jesús y sentir en nuestra vida diaria la alegría del Evangelio, ésta nos llevara a sentir hermanos nuestros a todos los desterrados de la sociedad y a trabajar por la paz, la justicia y el amor.

¡¡¡Feliz semana. Sean alegres!!!

Stewardship Story

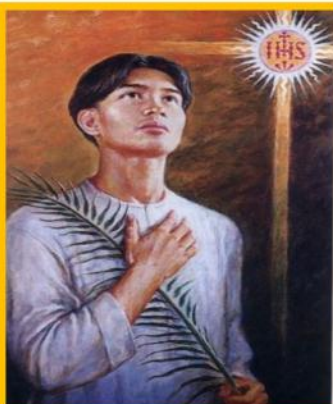

I am a lifelong member of St. James Church, and I attended St. James School. My stewardship started at school, even though it wasn't called stewardship at that time. Learning to be a follower of Jesus meant to serve and help others.

Throughout my life I have served St. James in many ways. I have served on the St. James School Board when my sons attended school, Parish Council, a hospitality greeter, lector, and helping to clean the church. Currently, I am a server at the Tuesday morning Mass, a member of the Rosary Guild, and I am reorganizing the parish library. All these ministries have strengthened me on my faith journey. I so enjoy being a small part of our faith community that makes St. James such a wonderful parish. I receive so much more than given.
