Abortion and Adoption

The number of would-be adoptive parents (of newborn babies) far outstrips the supply in America. Each year in the United States, about 135,000 American children are placed for adoption. Experts estimate somewhere between one and two million couples seek to adopt yearly. Every year, there are about 1.3 million abortions. Sadly, only 4% of women with unwanted pregnancies give their children up for adoption. Every child is wanted, and wanted desperately! By Pro-Life Articles Author

El aborto y la Adopción

El número de aspirantes a padres adoptivos (de los recién nacidos) es muy superior a la oferta en Estados Unidos. Cada año en los Estados Unidos, alrededor de 135.000 niños estadounidenses son colocados en adopción. Los expertos estiman que en algún lugar entre uno y dos millones de parejas buscan adoptar anual. Cada año, hay alrededor de 1,3 millones de abortos. Lamentablemente, sólo el 4% de las mujeres con embarazos no deseados dar a sus hijos en adopción. Todo niño sea deseado, y quería desesperadamente! Por Pro-Vida artículos Autor.

Testify Musical Lenten Program

"For God so loved the world ..." is such a familiar Bible verse. The Season of Lent pulls us back in to the reality of the love Jesus showed as he stretched out his arms between Heaven and Earth and gave his life for us. Testify invites you to spend an hour walking the path to Calvary with Jesus as they present the Stations of the Cross through music and reflections THIS Sunday, March 19, 4:00 pm at St. John the Baptist Catholic Church. Potluck will follow in the Parish Hall.

Eucharistic Adoration ~ Pray for Vocations

During Eucharistic Adoration many pray for an increase in vocations and for an end to all abortion. If you want to learn more about Eucharistic Adoration or would like to schedule an hour of Adoration, please call 270-737-5213.

IV Domingo de Cuaresma

Yo soy la luz del mundo, dice el Señor; el que me sigue tendrá la luz de la vida.

En el evangelio de hoy los discípulos, viendo al ciego de nacimiento, le preguntan a Jesús: "¿Por qué nació ciego este hombre? ¿Por el pecado de sus padres, o por su propio pecado?". Esta pregunta aparece siempre ante el dolor y el sufrimiento del inocente. Buscamos la culpa en alguien. Buscamos alguna explicación, algún sentido al dolor, porque no nos cabe en la cabeza que no haya una causa que lo explique. Pero siempre, las explicaciones y los razonamientos que hacemos se quedan cortos. El sufrimiento desborda nuestros intentos por entenderlo y explicarlo. La respuesta que da Jesús puede decirnos algo, "Ni por su propio pecado ni por el de sus padres; fue más bien para que en él se demuestre lo que Dios puede hacer. Mientras es de día, tenemos que hacer el trabajo del que me envió; pues viene la noche, cuando nadie puede trabajar. Mientras estoy en este mundo, soy la luz del mundo". ¿Qué culpa puede tener el niño al nacer? ¿Por qué iba a cargar el niño con el pecado de sus padres? Sin embargo, esta es la explicación que le damos muchas veces, al dolor. Lo buscamos en otros o en nosotros mismos. Tratamos de descubrir el origen del mal en algún comportamiento nuestro. El dolor y el sufrimiento no se pueden explicar. Tal vez lo peor que podemos hacer es buscar culpables o culparnos a nosotros mismos. El dolor es una pregunta que nos lanza la vida y que nos abre a lo que Dios puede hacer en nosotros y, a través nuestro, en los demás. El Señor nos invita a ser una luz para aquellos que transitan por el camino del dolor, como lo fue él para aquel ciego que recuperó la vista después de bañarse en el estanque de Siloé.

Stewardship Story

My journey cantoring has been a lot like receiving leftover chili in your shoe on the Feast of Saint Nicholas. It starts out wholly unexpected... then it puts a smile on your face... and only later you look back and realize it has changed your perspective on life in ways you couldn't imagine.

It was back in 3rd grade at St. James when Jeehan and the student cantors came to our classroom for recruiting. I was bored and halfheartedly arguing with my friend Theron when we heard "pizza party". Immediately, we were both playing catch up to figure out what was going on. Within the week, we had both joined up and were on the lookout for the first pizza party. As far as what it took to get to the pizza parties, well, we hadn't thought that far ahead yet. Singing definitely began as an uncomfortable, yet interesting experience. We were both shy and quiet, and sight reading wasn't exactly intuitive. I'm still pretty sure I saw Jeehan wince a couple of times here and there.

Many pizza parties later, I found myself not half bad at singing and headed off to high school. A rocky time in any adolescent's life (not to mention what I put my parents through, sorry mom and dad). Around this time, cantoring started sharing time with after school activities and eventually fell off the radar. Spending so much time in clubs and other group events, singing became more of something I did for fun when I had time rather than an obligation. And so, for a while, I took a break until around the holidays surrounding college. It was around that time I realized how much I enjoyed cantoring again. It was something I found I was missing for a while. In difficult times, sharing that gift with my parish put a smile on my face when not a lot else did.

Only now, coming back to cantoring after graduating, I've realized what a gift cantoring has been. It's been a way for me to give back to my parish for everything they've given me over the years. It began as something I enjoyed and slowly became something more than that, growing into something I couldn't imagine way back in 3rd grade. An unexpected opportunity, accepted for all the wrong reasons, blossomed into one of the most important experiences in my life. Cutting a few corners, I think you could confidently say that pizza has brought me closer to God!

A reminder that Eucharistic Adoration cards and envelopes are in the pamphlet rack in the back of church. The cards state that you have spent one hour of Eucharistic Adoration praying for someone or for their intentions. Please use the first card as a gift for loved ones, neighbors, and friends who may be ill or nearing death; or need prayers for other intentions. You could also choose this card for special occasions such as birthdays and anniversaries.

The second Eucharistic Adoration card is to pray for someone's vocation or their contemplation of a vocation, whether it is for the priesthood, religious life, married life, or single life. The cards are at no charge. All you must do is spend one hour in prayer before the Eucharist during Adoration. What better gift to give others than the gift of prayer!
