PARISH LIFE

A Prayer for Mother

The prayer below is for all mothers, living and deceased, and is especially appropriate to pray, as a family, in the days leading up to Mother's Day... In many ways, the battle between the culture of life and the culture of death is a battle over mothers, and how we understand their role in God's plan. As we pray this prayer, then, let us renew our resolve to strengthen, bless, and thank all mothers as they embrace the awesome vocation of accepting and nurturing new life.

God of tender love and life,
You compared your love for humanity
To the love a mother has for her own child.

You are the Lord and Giver of Life,
And you knit each of us together
In our mother's womb.

You provide for the world
The example of Mary, your own mother,
Who said yes to life amid her confusion and surprise.

We thank you, then, for our mothers.
Though human, they are also a reflection of you,
Lord God.
They are your gift to us.

We pray for all mothers today.
May they realize the greatness of their vocation
And have the strength to live it without fear.
Forgive their sins, and keep their eyes raised up to you.

To those who still make this earthly journey with us,
Give us the grace to love them as we should;
And to those whom you have called from this life,
Give a special place of honor in your Kingdom of endless life.

We pray through Christ our Lord. Amen.

~ Priests for Life

VI Domingo de Pascua

El que me ama, cumplirá
mi palabra, dice el Señor;
y mi Padre lo amará y
vendremos a él.

En el evangelio de hoy, Jesús continúa su discurso de despedida prometiendo enviar otro Defensor: se refiere al Espíritu Santo. El Espíritu Santo guía a los creyentes e inspira su oración para que sea escuchada. El Espíritu también nos hace comprender e interpretar para cada tiempo las palabras de Jesús. Jesús quiso decir que se daría a conocer mediante su Espíritu. Cuando Juan escribió su Evangelio en los años 90, ya la Iglesia había experimentado la venida y la presencia del Espíritu Santo en Pentecostés. La lectura de hoy nos recuerda que el amor es el fundamento de la vida cristiana. Juan ve a Jesús como el primer Defensor, que al irse, enviará otro. Por eso los apóstoles, que lo vieron hombre entre los hombres en el tiempo de su humillación voluntaria, deben alegrarse de su partida. El Espíritu Santo procede del Padre que es la fuente única, pero el Hijo no nos lo da como si sólo transmitiera algo recibido: es su propio Espíritu. Este Defensor no “caminará entre nosotros”, sino que “habitará en nosotros”.

Los primeros cristianos esperaban el pronto regreso de Jesús (Parusía) como Jesús lo había prometido. Juan explica esta promesa de un modo diferente: Cristo es el camino y regresará a ellos a través del Espíritu Santo.

As a Christian, I believe that each and every Christian is called to holiness... and nothing less!

And to say that each and every Christian is called to holiness is really to say that there can be no lukewarm behavior in their Christian life.

In other words, each and every Christian must say a firm and daily 'no' to mediocrity but 'yes' to an intentional Christian life.

Many of you may think it is easy for a priest to say or even do so.

My answer is NO.

It is not easy at all for me to choose holiness.

It is not easy at all for me to choose joy.

It is not easy at all for me to choose love.

It is not easy at all for me to choose God.

I have failed many times.

I have sinned many times.

I have been discouraged many times.

But I have never ever given up on God because I know that he always loves me, cares for me, and never forsakes me.

That's why I am always mindful of my choice.

That's why, today and every day, I decide to choose God.

I choose to be a good steward of God's gifts for me.

I choose to use my gifts to help, serve, and love others.

Thus, for me, stewardship is committed by my choices.

Stewardship is my vocation!
