PARISH LIFE

XII Domingo Ordinario

El “no tengáis miedo”, que hoy hemos escuchado una y otra vez en el evangelio, está encuadrado en el contexto de la misión. Jesús acaba de decir a sus seguidores que les perseguirán y les encarcelarán.

Sin embargo, está claro que la advertencia podemos aplicarla a todas las situaciones de miedo paralizante que podemos encontrar en la vida. No sólo porque Jesús dice lo mismo en otros contextos, sino porque así lo insinúan las bellísimas imágenes de los gorriones y los cabellos. Jesús dijo: “La verdad os hará libres”. Todos los miedos son causa de la ignorancia. Si conociéramos nuestro verdadero ser, no habría lugar para el miedo que nos impide ser nosotros mismos. Si no experimentamos por nosotros mismos la realidad que nos fundamenta, estaremos siempre intranquilos y surgirán los miedos.

Si Jesús nos invita a no tener miedo, no es porque nos prometa un camino de rosas. Se trata de una seguridad que permanece intacta en medio de las dificultades, sabiendo que los contratiempos no pueden anular tu ser. Dios no es la garantía de que todo va a ir bien, sino la seguridad de que Él estará ahí en todo caso.

A Mother’s Poem to her Child Lost by Abortion

“Forgive me. I am sorry my baby, my little one. You were killed by the one who loved you the most. For the months I carried you, Flesh of my flesh, flesh of his flesh. I felt your every move, I could feel you. But I was too young, I did not know. Your father, my little one, did not know you. You are a boy, a man like him. I call you Stewart William, like him. You have curly, brown hair like him. Your face is his face. I love you like I love him. I have no excuses. I saved you from a world. Where babies are killed by the ones who should love them the most. You are safe with God now. If I should ever have another child, you must remember that I will always love you the most, my first baby. Sleep well, my little one.” For healing after abortion, visit www.AbortionForgiveness.com.

“All the hairs of your head are counted...you are worth more than many sparrows.” This assertion in today’s Gospel forms the basis for preaching on how much God values human life. It is not just “living things” that God values, because he created them. Rather, it is human beings – worth more than other living beings – who are privileged to have a particular relationship with God. This “capacity for God” marks out what we mean by the “sanctity” of human life. There is a relationship opened up for us with the Creator – a relationship of which lower forms of life are not capable. We can know him, praise him, receive a share in his divine nature, and one day see him face to face. We were made for him, as St. Augustine said, and our hearts are restless until we rest in him.

If a sparrow does not fall to the ground without the Father’s knowledge, what about a tiny unborn child killed “in secret” by chemical abortions (sometimes masquerading as birth control), or a new human embryo destroyed “in secret” in a laboratory in the name of “research?”

Part of acknowledging Jesus before others, then, is to bear witness to the care that he and the Father give to the smallest human lives, and the concern God has to preserve such life. ~ Priests for Life ~

Saint James Haiti Committee News

Pastor of St. Marc, Haiti, Fr. Venel Suffrard, writes to express his deep appreciation for the loyal support of St. James parishioners. With your support, Father diligently makes every effort to meet the needs of St. Marc parish.

Our last visit, prior to COVID-19, we noticed a leak in the roof of St. Marc church, left of the altar. Fr. Venel is requesting help with the cost to repair the roof—$25,000 U.S. dollars. Some of this cost has been met with a private donation. We are humbly requesting your help as well. Help to make the peoples' place of worship, hope, and spiritual comfort secure from the weather. Please give what you can afford, every dollar makes a difference and may God bless you!

Again, Fr. Venel sincerely thanks you for your continued support of his people, who have few of the basics of life, those things we take for granted.
