PARISH LIFE

XVIII Domingo Ordinario

Fiesta de la Transfiguración del Señor

Subiendo a la montaña con Pedro, Santiago y Juan, Jesús mostró su gloria, transfigurándose y brillando con luz, para luego entrar en diálogo con Moisés y Elías. Una luz que es "la luz de la esperanza, la luz para atravesar las tinieblas". Las tinieblas no tienen la última palabra, ante "los grandes enigmas" de la vida, estamos llamados a detenernos y volver la mirada a Cristo:

"Necesitamos, pues, otra mirada, una luz que ilumine en profundidad el misterio de la vida y nos ayude a ir más allá de nuestros propios esquemas y de los criterios de este mundo. También nosotros estamos llamados a subir a la montaña, a contemplar la belleza del Resucitado que enciende destellos de luz en cada fragmento de nuestra vida y nos ayuda a interpretar la historia a partir de la victoria pascual".

"El Señor nos hace ver el final de este camino que es la Resurrección, la belleza, cargando con su propia cruz, nos invita en la Transfiguración a seguir el camino de los discípulos, la "perspectiva del sufrimiento cristiano" que no es un "sodomismo", es un "paso necesario pero transitorio" hacia la luz.

"Subamos a la montaña en oración; oración silenciosa, oración del corazón, oración... Siempre buscando al Señor. Permanezcamos unos instantes en el recogimiento, cada día un rato, fijemos nuestra mirada interior en su rostro y dejemos que su luz nos impregne e irradie en nuestra vida".

The Pope on Life

"Every life is sacred! Let us go forward with the culture of life to counter the logic of waste and the declining birth rate; let us be close and together let us pray for the babies who are threatened by the termination of pregnancy, as well as for the people who are at the end of life — every life is sacred — so that no one may be left alone and that love may defend the meaning of life. Let us recall the words of Mother Teresa: "Life is beautiful, admire it; life is life, defend it," be it a baby who is about to be born, or a person who is close to death: every life is sacred!" – Pope Francis, Message for Day of Life, Feb. 5, 2017

Christ allowed some of his apostles to see him transfigured precisely to strengthen them for the coming crucifixion, and for the suffering that they also would endure for proclaiming the Name of Christ...In the second reading, Peter begins to make a comparison of "a lamp shining in a dark place." The image changes at the end.

We might expect him simply to say that we keep our eyes on the lamp in the dark place until the morning star rises, and gives light to the whole place. But he says that it rises "in our hearts." The image has shifted to the internal world. But then again, perhaps it hasn't shifted that much, because the rising of the morning star in our hearts represents our faith in Christ Transfigured – the Christ of Glory. This light given to our heart, our mind, our every choice, then indeed enlightens the external room, and the external world of our lives. We see creation and circumstances much more clearly because we know who Christ is and what he calls us to do.

This presence of Christ who strengthens us for sacrifice can then be applied to the challenges we have and the sacrifices we have to make in order to say "Yes" to life – the lives of our own children, and the lives of those in danger, who need our advocacy. — Priests for Life

Please save the date: The 2023 Clarity Walk for Life "Hope Happens Here," will be held on Saturday, September 16th from 9am to 12pm. Details will be provided in this column in the coming weeks.

SAINT JAMES CATHOLIC CHURCH & SCHOOL

Celebrating the Feast of Saint James the Apostle!

The celebrations to honor Saint James started on Sunday, July 23rd, when we had 40 parishioners attend "The Way of St James" program. This was a joint effort between the Health & Wellness Committee and Social Committee. Next on Tuesday, July 25th, on the feast day, we had approximately 25 parishioners pack 300 boxes of food for senior citizens. All of them enjoyed being together and helping at Feeding America and quite a few of them asked when we could do it again! Saint James, pray for us!

St. James Catholic School welcomes all new families and offers a quality education where students can grow academically, spiritually, and socially.
