PARISH LIFE

Pope Francis:

Abortion is Not 'Progressive'

In November of 2013, Pope Francis issued his Apostolic Exhortation called "The Joy of the Gospel." In it he says, "Among the vulnerable for whom the Church wishes to care with particular love and concern are unborn children, the most defenseless and innocent among us. Nowadays efforts are made to deny them their human dignity and to do with them whatever one pleases, taking their lives and passing laws preventing anyone from standing in the way of this... Human beings are ends in themselves and never a means of resolving other problems... Once this conviction disappears, so do solid and lasting foundations for the defense of human rights ...It is not "progressive" to try to resolve problems by eliminating a human life." Together with Pope Francis, let us defend life

St. Paul expresses profound anguish in today's second reading for his people. He longs that they accept Christ, who is "God blessed forever," and the only hope of the human family. For every disciple, Christ is everything. Each event and decision of life, each project and plan, finds its standard, meaning, and fulfillment in him.

Yet those events, projects, plans, and the circumstances of life under which they unfold, are very much like the tempestuous behavior of nature that we see in both the first reading and the Gospel. Wind, waves, earthquakes, noise, danger, and the confusion of constant change mark many chapters of life. Yet there isn't a single chapter, nor a single moment, in which the believer cannot cling to Christ, find him present, and embrace his hand that saves them from drowning.

In the pro-life effort, this theme applies directly to those confused by a pregnancy they feel they cannot handle, those who have had an abortion and are suffering the storms of anguish that follow – and risk drowning in despair – and those who are in the heat of the battle, defending life against numerous odds and attacks.

In all of this, we seek and cling to Christ, who gives us the strength to stand on the side of life and experience his forgiveness and strength for the battle.

Priests for Life.

XIX Domingo Ordinario

No es difícil ver en la barca de los discípulos de Jesús, sacudida por las olas y desbordada por el fuerte viento en contra, la figura de la Iglesia actual, amenazada desde fuera por toda clase de fuerzas adversas y tentada desde dentro por el miedo y la poca fe. ¿Cómo leer este relato evangélico desde la crisis en la que la Iglesia parece hoy naufragar?

Según el evangelista, "Jesús se acerca a la barca caminando sobre el agua". Los discípulos no son capaces de reconocerlo en medio de la tormenta y la oscuridad de la noche. Les parece un "fantasma". El miedo los tiene aterrorizados. Lo único real es aquella fuerte tempestad.

Este es nuestro primer problema. Estamos viviendo la crisis de la Iglesia contagiándonos unos a otros desaliento, miedo y falta de fe. No somos capaces de ver que Jesús se nos está acercando precisamente desde esta fuerte crisis. Nos sentimos más solos e indefensos que nunca.

Jesús les dice tres palabras: "Ánimo. Soy yo. No temáis". Solo Jesús les puede hablar así. Pero sus oídos solo oyen el estruendo de las olas y la fuerza del viento. Este es también nuestro error. Si no escuchamos la invitación de Jesús a poner en él nuestra confianza incondicional, ¿a quién acudiríamos?

Pedro siente un impulso interior y sostenido por la llamada de Jesús, salta de la barca y "se dirige hacia Jesús andando sobre las aguas". Así hemos de aprender hoy a caminar hacia Jesús en medio de la crisis: apoyándonos, no en el poder, el prestigio y las seguridades del pasado, sino en el deseo de encontrarnos con Jesús en medio de la oscuridad y las incertidumbres de estos tiempos.

2023 Peter's Pence Collection

On August 19-20, the Archdiocese takes up the Peter's Pence Collection, which supports the Universal Church and the work of the Holy See, including helping Pope Francis with the funds he needs to carry out his charitable works around the world. The proceeds benefit our brothers and sisters on the margins of society, including victims of war, oppression, and natural disasters. Take this opportunity to join with Pope Francis and serve as a witness of charity to our suffering brothers and sisters.
