PARISH LIFE

No More Death - Pray to End Abortion

People, indeed, can convert. God himself asks us to believe that through today's readings. The son who first said no can later say yes (Gospel); the wicked one can turn from his wickedness and still find life (First reading). This proves true in the pro-life effort; in fact, the flow of conversions is in the direction of life, not death. Norma McCorvey, the former "Jane Roe" and plaintiff (and winner) of the Supreme Court's 1973 Roe v. Wade decision legalizing abortion, became a pro-life Catholic and worked for the rest of her life to end abortion. The same is true of Dr. Bernard Nathanson, one of the chief engineers of the abortion rights movement. And there are so many others that an international society of ex-abortionists has been formed, called the "Society of Centurions."

But even more common is the testimony "I Regret My Abortion" from the women of the Silent No More Awareness Campaign, the largest mobilization in history of those who have had abortions and now speak out against it. "I Regret Lost Fatherhood" is the message that the men of the campaign offer, as they grieve the children they lost to abortion. The Church is called by today's readings to welcome these individuals back, and to learn from their experience.

Please join us this Sunday, for the National Life Chain event from 2:30 to 3:30pm.

Life Chain is a silent, prayerful, non-political, public witness for the unborn. We will stand along designated routes for one hour holding signs and praying with thousands of others throughout the USA. It is a visual statement of solidarity by the Christian community that we support the sanctity of human life from the moment of conception. Over 1500 chains across the country support this prayerful effort.

Elizabethtown's locations: Sidewalks in front of Longhorn Restaurant Rt. 31W, Cecilian Bank (farther N. on 31W), and Gloria Dei Lutheran Church on Ring Road.

SAVE THE DATES:

Annual Cemetery of the Innocents
at the Godfrey's on Ring Road, Etown.

Saturday, October 28th - cross installation day
Saturday, December 2nd - cross removal day

A heartfelt "Thank you," to all who helped, prayed, and contributed to making last month's Clarity Walk 2023 "Hope Happens Here" a great success!

XXVI Domingo Ordinario

Mis ovejas escuchan mi voz, dice el Señor; yo las conozco y ellas me siguen.

Jesús lleva unos días en Jerusalén moviéndose en los alrededores del templo. No encuentra por las calles la acogida amistosa de las aldeas de Galilea. Los dirigentes religiosos que se cruzan en su camino tratan de desautorizarlo ante la gente sencilla de la capital. No descansarán hasta enviarlo a la cruz.

Jesús no pierde la paz. Con paciencia incansable sigue llamándolos a la conversión. Les cuenta una anécdota sencilla que se le acaba de ocurrir al verlos: la conversación de un padre que pide a sus dos hijos que vayan a trabajar a la viña de la familia.

El primero rechaza al padre con una negativa tajante: «No quiero». No le da explicación alguna. Sencillamente no le da la gana. Sin embargo, más tarde reflexiona, se da cuenta de que está rechazando a su padre y, arrepentido, marcha a la viña. El segundo atiende amablemente la petición de su padre: «Voy, señor». Parece dispuesto a cumplir sus deseos, pero pronto se olvida de lo que ha dicho. No vuelve a pensar en su padre. Todo queda en palabras. No marcha a la viña.

Por si no han entendido su mensaje, Jesús dirigiéndose a «los sumos sacerdotes y a los ancianos del pueblo», les aplica de manera directa y provocativa la parábola: «Os aseguro que los publicanos y las prostitutas os llevan la delantera en el camino del reino de Dios». Quiere que reconozcan su resistencia a entrar en el proyecto del Padre.

Ellos son los "profesionales" de la religión: los que han dicho un gran "sí" al Dios del templo, los especialistas del culto, los guardianes de la ley. No sienten necesidad de convertirse. Por eso, cuando ha venido el profeta Juan a preparar los caminos a Dios, le han dicho "no," cuando ha llegado Jesús invitándolos a entrar en su reino, siguen diciendo "no."

Por el contrario, los publicanos y las prostitutas son los "profesionales del pecado": los que han dicho un gran "no" al Dios de la religión; los que se han colocado fuera de la ley y del culto santo. Sin embargo, su corazón se ha mantenido abierto a la conversión. Cuando ha venido Juan han creído en él; al llegar Jesús lo han acogido.

La religión no siempre conduce a hacer la voluntad del Padre. Nos podemos sentir seguros en el cumplimiento de nuestros deberes religiosos y acostumbrarnos a pensar que nosotros no necesitamos convertirnos ni cambiar. Son los alejados de la religión los que han de hacerlo. Por eso es tan peligroso sustituir la escucha del Evangelio por la piedad religiosa. Lo dijo Jesús: "No todo el que me diga "Señor," "Señor" entrará en el reino de Dios, sino el que haga la voluntad de mi Padre del cielo."
