PARISH LIFE

Life is Primary

A major Vatican document reminds us that the right to life is primary: “The teachings of Pope John XXIII, the Second Vatican Council, and Pope Paul VI have given abundant indication of the concept of human rights as articulated by the Magisterium. Pope John Paul II has drawn up a list of them in the Encyclical Centesimus Annus...The first right presented in this list is the right to life, from conception to its natural end, which is the condition for the exercise of all other rights and, in particular, implies the illicitness of every form of procured abortion and euthanasia” (Compendium of the Social Doctrine of the Church, Pontifical Council for Justice and Peace, Vatican City, 2004).

God did not make death; rather, he destroys it. He does so in Christ, for whom the wedding banquet (the marriage of Christ the Bridegroom with the Church his bride) is celebrated. To stand with Christ is to stand with life, and to stand with life is to stand against whatever destroys it. Nothing destroys more life than abortion.

We are on the holy mountain now – in the Eucharist, where the Church, and each of us individually, renew our vows to the Lord, and receive (not simply recall) his victory over death. It remains for us to “proclaim, celebrate, and serve the Gospel of Life” (as John Paul II put it in Evangelium Vitae), to apply that victory to every sector of society. ~ Priests for Life

ATTENTION VOLUNTEERS NEEDED!

Please join us on October 28th, starting at 11am, installing the crosses of the Cemetery of the Innocents on the front lawn of Dr. and Mrs. Godfrey at the intersection of Ring Road and Pear Orchard Road in Etown. Next week, this column will contain a description of how the work will be organized.

XXVIII Domingo de Tiempo Ordinario

En el evangelio del Domingo de hoy Jesús cuenta una parábola a los jefes de los sacerdotes y a los ancianos, en el templo de Jerusalén, refleja esta misma realidad humana. Los invitados a la fiesta de bodas no aceptan la convocatoria y desprecian la invitación a unirse a la alegría del rey el día del matrimonio de su hijo. Esto es lo que motiva al rey a ordenar a sus criados que vayan “a las calles principales, e inviten a la boda a todos los que encuentren”. Dice Jesús que “los criados salieron a las calles y reunieron a todos los que encontraron, malos y buenos; y así la sala se llenó de gente”. Pero, desde luego, es importante estar dispuestos para la fiesta; esto es lo que explica la reacción del rey con el que no iba vestido con traje de boda.

Los dueños de la religión y de la fe, en la época de Jesús, ni aceptaban ellos mismos la oferta de la salvación, ni dejaban que otros la aceptaran; en lugar de ser mediadores entre Dios y los hombres, se convertían en obstáculos para este encuentro. Por eso Dios se ve obligado a extender su invitación a todos los pueblos, a todas las gentes que quieran acoger este llamado, malos y buenos.

Tal vez hoy también nos pase un poco de lo mismo. Somos invitados por Dios al banquete del reino, pero muchas veces tenemos excelentes disculpas para no participar de la fiesta de Dios; y fácilmente nos podemos convertir en obstáculos para que otros se encuentren con Dios. No nos contentamos con despreciar la invitación, sino que, además, impedimos que otros vayan a la fiesta. Mejor dicho, nos pasa como al perro del hortelano, que ni come, ni deja comer.

FAITH FORMATION

You're Invited...

NATIONAL Eucharistic Congress

Next July, nearly 80,000 Catholics from all over the United States will gather in Indianapolis for a transformative encounter with Jesus. Together we will ask Him to revive our hearts, our Church, and our world, launching us into a new chapter of missionary faith. This wonderful opportunity will take place from July 17-21, 2024 and you are invited and encouraged to participate. This event will feature compelling programs & speakers geared to various audiences, including youth, families, and adults.
