PARISH LIFE

XXXII DOMINGO ORDINARIO /
XXXII SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Cardinal Bernardin on Life

"Not all values, however, are of equal weight. Some are more fundamental than others. I wish to emphasize that no earthly value is more fundamental than human life itself. Human life is the condition for enjoying freedom and all other values. Consequently, if one must choose between protecting or serving lesser human values that depend upon life for their existence and life itself, human life must take precedence. Today the recognition of human life as a fundamental value is threatened. Nowhere is this clearer than in the case of elective abortion." (Cardinal Joseph Bernardin, "Deciding for Life," October 1, 1989).

The second reading today reminds us that "Christ died and rose again." This, of course, is the basis for the pro-life efforts of the Church. We stand with life and proclaim life precisely because we stand with and proclaim Christ, who conquered the power of death. His resurrection does not simply conquer his death. It conquers ours, because it overthrows the entire kingdom of death. Therefore, in a radical sense, the power of abortion has already been defeated in Christ. We, the People of Life, have the task of announcing that victory, celebrating it, and serving it. We must apply it to every sector of society. This work is to be done with confidence, because victory is our starting point. In the pro-life cause, we are not just working for victory; we are working from victory.

The lesson of vigilance that comes from the Gospel can be applied to the constant vigilance that we as individuals and as a nation must keep over the sacredness of life, not allowing anything into our attitudes, actions, laws, or public policies that degrades or denies the right to life. ~ Priests for Life ~

<><

We honor and thank our veterans, and their families, for their defense of our unalienable Rights of Life, Liberty, and the Pursuit of Happiness.

Estén preparados, porque no saben a qué hora va a venir el Hijo del hombre.

El tema principal del evangelio de hoy es la necesidad de estar preparados en todo tiempo como hijos de Dios para la llegada del Señor Jesucristo desde los cielos, para traer el juicio a las naciones, y la entrada culminante al reino eterno. En la parábola que Jesús le expone a sus discípulos trata sobre diez vírgenes, cinco de ellas prudente y cinco insensatas, es clave para ir aclarando el propósito de la parábola. Las cinco prudentes representan aquellos que hacen la voluntad de Dios esperando el novio, acorde al mandamiento dado por el Señor Jesucristo; y las cinco insensatas son los que no están preparados para la venida del Señor, pues se quedan estancados en no hacer la voluntad de Dios.

Que no estemos distraídos por las cosas de este mundo, sin, el pecado, mas bien preparados, cumpliendo la palabra de Dios con nuestras vidas.

Be ready, because you do not know what time the Son of Man will come.

The main theme of today's gospel is the need to be prepared at all times as children of God for the arrival of the Lord Jesus Christ from heaven, to bring judgment to the nations, and the climactic entry into the eternal kingdom. In the parable that Jesus tells his disciples, it is about ten virgins, five of them wise and five foolish, which is key to clarifying the purpose of the parable. The five prudent represent those who do the will of God while waiting for the bridegroom, according to the commandment given by the Lord Jesus Christ, and the five foolish are those who are not prepared for the coming of the Lord, since they remain stuck in not doing the will of God.

May we not be distracted by the things of this world, sin, but rather well prepared, fulfilling the word of God with our lives.
