His career then took him to First Federal Saving Bank and PNC bank where he served as vice president. He retired after over 40 years in banking as Senior Vice President of The Cecilian Bank.

Throughout his career he has been active in many clubs and organizations, including the A.M. PARISH LIFE

The Divine Child's Birth

Advent leads the Church to the Silent Night when God Himself is revealed as one of us. This season leads us to the joy of His birth. If God has joined His nature to ours, how can we ever allow our nature to be despised? If He has come to bring us Divine Life, and will return to take us to the skies, how can it be all right to throw people in the garbage? May His birth shed protection on all about to be born, and as we work to end abortion, may we "wait in joyful hope for the coming of Our Savior, Jesus Christ."

The theme of repentance again is stressed in today's readings. As John the Baptizer prepared the people for the coming of Christ by proclaiming repentance, so the Church prepares the world for his second coming by likewise proclaiming, and opening the way, for repentance. The Church not only gives the message of repentance, but gives us all the grace we need to live it out. The straight path that has to be prepared in the wasteland, the lowering of the mountains and filling of the valleys, all represent the arduous task of making our own hearts right in the sight of God, and also the task of making the "terrain" of society and culture right with God.

Here, the building of a Culture of Life is central. It is, in its essence, a preparation for Christ's coming. We make straight the way for welcoming him by welcoming all who are created in his image, particularly the poor, the marginalized, and the unborn. We strive "to be found without stain or defilement, and at peace in his sight" (2nd reading) by being at peace with all our brothers and sisters, including the unborn, and not stained with the sin of rejecting them. -- Priests for Life

Come Holy Spirit. Fill our hearts with awe and recognition of the Human Value and Dignity of all children in the womb!

Thank you to everyone who participated in this week's 34th Annual Night of Prayer for Life.

Right to Life of Louisville will once again sponsor a prolife advertisement to commemorate the loss of over 63,000,000 babies following the 1973 Supreme Court decision that legalized abortion in the United States for nearly 50 years. Let YOUR voice be heard by participating in this campaign using the QR code or going to <https://rtlou.org/24prolifead/> and submitting your name. Names received by January 15th will appear in the January 25th edition of The Record.

PARISH LIFE

Segundo Domingo de Adviento “Preparad el camino del Señor”

Por medio del profeta Isaías, el Señor infunde esperanza y consuelo a su pueblo, pues regresará junto a él, le perdonará y, cariñosamente, le tomará en brazos. Por eso pide que desde Sion se envíe un emisario que anuncie en el desierto: Preparad el camino del Señor». Proclamando el salmo 84, escuchamos esperanzados la promesa del Señor. Él vendrá a traernos la paz y la justicia, la misericordia y la fidelidad, la salvación y la gloria.

En su segunda carta, San Pedro nos anuncia que el Señor regresará en algún momento. No sabemos cuándo, pero es seguro que lo hará. Por ello debemos tener paciencia, procurando estar siempre bien preparados, para que el Señor nos encuentre en paz, limpios e irreprochables.

San Marcos comienza su Evangelio hablándonos del anuncio de San Juan Bautista. Él es el mensajero del que nos habló el profeta Isaías, el que proclama en el desierto la venida del Salvador, y el que ayuda al pueblo a prepararse para tal acontecimiento. Así es, San Juan Bautista ofrece al pueblo un purificador bautismo de arrepentimiento y conversión interior, para que todos los que lo deseen puedan vivir el Reino de Dios.

Second Sunday of Advent “Prepare the way of the Lord”

Through the prophet Isaiah, the Lord gives hope and comfort to his people, because he will return to them, forgive him, and lovingly take him in his arms. That is why he asks that an emissary be sent from Zion to announce in the desert: "Prepare the way of the Lord."

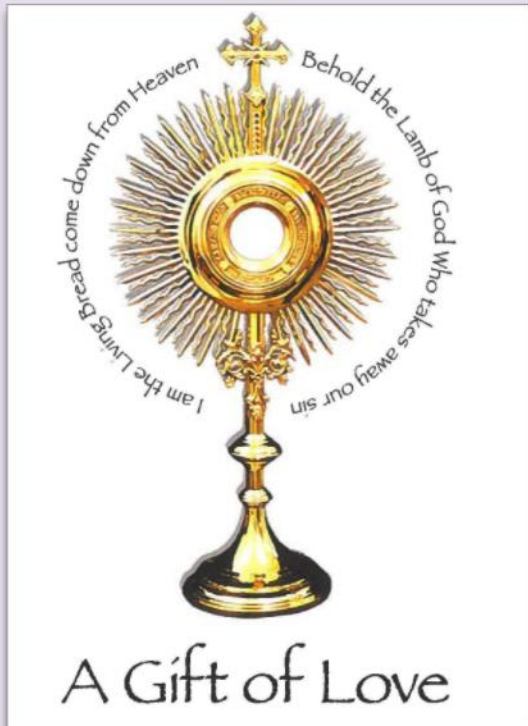

Proclaiming Psalm 84, we listen with hope to the promise of the Lord. He will come to bring us peace and justice, mercy and faithfulness, salvation and glory.

In his second letter, Saint Peter announces to us that the Lord will return at some point. We don't know when, but it is certain that it will. Therefore we must be patient, always trying to be well prepared, so that the Lord finds us at peace, clean and blameless.

Saint Mark begins his Gospel by telling us about the announcement of Saint John the Baptist. He is the messenger that the prophet Isaiah told us about, the one who proclaims the coming of the Savior in the desert, and the one who helps the people prepare for such an event. That's right, Saint John the Baptist offers the people a purifying baptism of repentance and interior conversion, so that all who desire it can live the Kingdom of God.

What better gift to give others than the gift of prayer!
