FAITH TOOLKIT

THE 'O ANTIPHONS' OF ADVENT

Each year, as we enter the final stretch of Advent, the church brings forth from its treasury a collection of ancient prayers, "The Great O Antiphons," which express our longing for the coming of Christ.

From December 17 to December 23, the O Antiphons accompany the recitation of Mary's Magnificat during Evening Prayer in the Liturgy of the Hours; they also serve as the Alleluia verses before the Gospel readings at Mass. (The carol "O Come, O Come, Emmanuel" is an adaptation of these antiphons.)

Consider making the O Antiphons part of your own evening prayer at the dinner table, around the Advent wreath or before bed.

DECEMBER 17

O Wisdom of our God Most High,
guiding creation with power and love:
come to teach us the path of knowledge!

DECEMBER 18

O Leader of the House of Israel,
giver of the Law to Moses on Sinai:
come to rescue us with your mighty power!

DECEMBER 19

O Root of Jesse's stem,
sign of God's love for all his people:
come to save us without delay!

DECEMBER 20

O Key of David,
opening the gates of God's eternal Kingdom:
come and free the prisoners of darkness!

DECEMBER 21

O Radiant Dawn,
splendor of eternal light, sun of justice:
come and shine on those who dwell in darkness
and in the shadow of death.

DECEMBER 22

O King of all nations and keystone of the Church:
come and save man, whom you formed from the dust!

DECEMBER 23

O Emmanuel, our King and Giver of Law:
come to save us, Lord our God!

PARISH LIFE

Christmas: A Gift of Life

“The Gospel of life is at the heart of Jesus' message. Lovingly received day after day by the Church, it is to be preached with dauntless fidelity as "good news" to the people of every age and culture. At the dawn of salvation, it is the Birth of a Child which is proclaimed as joyful news: "I bring you good news of a great joy which will come to all the people; for to you is born this day in the city of David a Saviour, who is Christ the Lord" (Lk 2:10-11). The source of this "great joy" is the Birth of the Saviour; but Christmas also reveals the full meaning of every human birth, and the joy which accompanies the Birth of the Messiah is thus seen to be the foundation and fulfilment of joy at every child born into the world (cf. Jn 16:21)" (St. John Paul II, "The Gospel of Life," n.1).

The command to “rejoice always” may seem like a demanding requirement, given the fact that things do not always go our way, because of circumstances beyond our control. Yet this rejoicing is always possible, because it is based on the salvation which Christ has come to bring. “I rejoice heartily in the Lord,” Isaiah writes, “for he has clothed me with a robe of salvation and wrapped me in a mantle of justice.”

This “justice,” manifested when God rescues his people (for example, from slavery in Egypt) has come to us in the Divine Child whose birth we are preparing to celebrate. He wrapped us in a mantle of justice when, by his death and resurrection, he rescued us from the power of death. “To proclaim liberty to captives” is his mission, as the First Reading indicates in a passage that would later be quoted by Christ himself in reference to his own ministry. The Christmas song “O Holy Night” reflects this theme when it says, “Chains shall he break, for the slave is our brother, and in his name all oppression shall cease.”

We who are rescued must rescue the poor and weak among us, including the poorest and weakest, the unborn children. To celebrate the God who comes to free the oppressed, and has freed us, means to commit ourselves to ending oppression in our culture.

Tercer Domingo de Adviento

La alegría del Adviento

En este III Dom. de Adviento la liturgia hace referencia a un ingrediente esencial del tiempo litúrgico que vivimos, y fundamental en la vida del cristiano: la alegría.

La palabra de Dios de este domingo nos trae de la mano de Isaías un mensaje de esperanza. Nos anuncia un tiempo de gracia del Señor para todos aquellos que sufren. Y nos invita a llenarnos de gozo y de alegría.

Con María, en el magnificat, a modo de salmo responsorial, hacemos nuestro su canto de alabanza a la grandeza de Dios, que mira nuestra pequeñez y humillación, que se fija con gran misericordia en los más desfavorecidos de este mundo para sacarlos de su situación de pobreza.

San Pablo nos invita a la verdadera alegría que se sustenta en la oración y a la acción de Gracias, dejándonos conducir por el Espíritu y consagrándonos en cuerpo y alma al Dios de la paz, hasta que se cumpla la promesa de Jesucristo.

El Evangelio de Juan nos presenta a Juan Bautista como testigo de la luz y voz que grita en el desierto que anuncia a Jesucristo, la Palabra que se encarna.

El Evangelio hoy nos presenta a Juan Bautista, "testigo" de Cristo (saltó de alegría ya antes de nacer). Y el testigo habla no de "opiniones" o "ideas", sino de lo que ha visto y oído... El mundo necesita hoy nuevos testigos de esta alegría de Salvación que viene de Dios, y para la que nos estamos preparando en este tiempo.

La Tristeza es hermana del pecado... pero la Alegría es hija de la Salvación (lejanía de Dios) # (Dios está cerca)

Como Juan Bautista, demos testimonio de Cristo; para que en esta Navidad la auténtica alegría cristiana (la del Emanuel, Dios con nosotros) renueve nuestros corazones y los de todos los hombres.

Amén

Third Sunday of Advent

The joy of Advent

In this Third Sunday of Advent the liturgy refers to an essential ingredient of the liturgical time we live, and fundamental in the life of the Christian: Joy.

This Sunday's word of God brings us a message of hope from the hand of Isaiah. It announces a time of grace from the Lord for all those who suffer. And it invites us to be filled with joy and happiness.

With Mary, in the Magnificat, as a responsorial psalm, we make her song our own as praise to the greatness of God, who looks at our littleness and humiliation, who looks with great mercy on the most disadvantaged in this world to lift them out of their situation. of poverty.

Saint Paul invites us to true joy that is sustained by prayer and thanksgiving, allowing ourselves to be led by the Spirit and consecrating ourselves body and soul to the God of peace, until the promise of Jesus Christ is fulfilled.

The Gospel of John presents us with John the Baptist as a witness of the light and voice that shouts in the desert that announces Jesus Christ, the Word that becomes incarnate.

The Gospel today presents us with John the Baptist, "witness" of Christ (he jumped for joy even before he was born). And the witness speaks not of "opiniones" or "ideas," but of what he has seen and heard... Today the world needs new witnesses of this joy of Salvation that comes from God, and for which we are preparing in this moment. time.

Sadness is the sister of sin... but Joy is the daughter of Salvation (distance from God) # (God is near)

Like John the Baptist, let us bear witness to Christ; so that this Christmas authentic Christian joy (that of Immanuel, God with us) renews our hearts and those of all men.

Amen

What better gift to give others than the gift of prayer!
