11TH ANNUAL
Black & White Knight
BOWTIES & BLING
FEBRUARY 3RD, 2024

Grand Prize
EZ-GO Valor Golf Cart or $10,000 cash option

Saint James School is selling raffle tickets after all masses the weekend of January 20-21 in the vestibule of church. The grand prize is an EZ-GO Valor golf cart (sponsored by Extreme Motorsports) or $10,000 cash option. Tickets are $20.00 each and only a maximum of 2,000 will be sold. Our goal is to sell 1,850 raffle tickets this year and we are only 25% of the way to our goal.

Through this and other fundraisers, we are able to offset core school expenditures such as teacher salaries, student and faculty resources, athletics, and extracurricular activities. This keeps our tuition affordable, provides students with unique opportunities, and enhances the quality of education we are able to provide.

If you have any questions or would like to volunteer to sell additional tickets (businesses welcome), please stop by the table in the back for additional information. You may also contact the Raffle Chair, Courtney Fleck at Courtney.r.fleck@gmail.com.

PARISH LIFE

The 2024 Kentucky March For Life and "Love Them Both Rally" will take place in Frankfort on Tuesday, January 23rd. For details, please use the Quick Reference Code to the left or enter the following into your web browser:

<https://kentuckymarchforlife.org>

Pro-life Words from Hollywood

"Indeed the tragedy of abortion haunts women from all walks of life. Abortion advocates are spending millions to package their tired rhetoric and half-truths in cutting-edge advertising campaigns targeted to young women... The early feminists were pro-life. And really, abortion is a huge disservice to women, and it hasn't been presented that way." -- Emmy winning actress, Patricia Heaton, from Everybody Loves Raymond

The most powerful way to draw the pro-life theme from today's readings is to build on Paul's declaration to the Corinthians, "You are not your own" (second reading). The battle cry of "pro-choice" is "my body, my life, my decision" – in other words, the idea that we are indeed our own. The idea is that we are each the captain of our own ship, and nobody can tell us what to do.

Christianity changes and challenges all that. Because of what Jesus Christ did, we are no longer our own. He owns us – yet not to oppress or enslave us, but to incorporate us into His Body. Nobody owns himself, and nobody owns anyone else. In Christ, we go beyond merely the natural concept of the "common good" (which also challenges the "pro-choice" mentality). Rather we enter into a new humanity and a level of love and unity with one another (including the unborn) that could never be achieved by human effort alone.

A striking contrast to this teaching is the way the late Dr. James McMahon, an abortionist from Southern California who performed partial-birth abortions, answered the question posed to him by the American Medical Association news regarding how he justified doing what he did. He said, "After 20 weeks (4-½ months) where it frankly is a child to me, I really agonize over it. ... On the other hand, I have another position, which I think is superior in the hierarchy of questions, and that is: 'Who owns the child?' It's got to be the mother." -- Abortionist James McMahon, interview with American Medical News, July 5, 1993. ~ Priests for Life ~.

It's still not too late to add your name and support to the 2024 Right to Life Memorial ad in the January 25th edition of The Record.

Segundo Domingo del Tiempo Ordinario

Segundo domingo del tiempo ordinario, una vez más, los textos bíblicos nos sorprenden. Tres palabras podrían titular cada uno de estos textos por su contenido: llamada (1Sam 3, 3b-10.19); cuerpo (1 Cor 6, 13c-15.17-20); encuentro (Jn 1, 35-42). Tres palabras que hablan de lo que somos y cómo serlo.

"... ¡glorificad a Dios con vuestro cuerpo!" (1 Cor 6, 20). Esta es nuestra realidad. No andemos con dicotomías: ahora soy cuerpo, ahora soy espíritu, sería un juego irresponsable, justificación de las incoherencias. Como afirma Louis-Marie Chauvet, "lo más espiritual no sucede sino por mediación de lo más corpóreo". ¿No sabéis que vuestro cuerpo es templo del Espíritu Santo, que recibís de Dios y habita en vosotros?" (1Cor 6,19).

Y para tomar conciencia de la propia realidad se precisa de los demás. La llamada del hermano, del otro, confirma y afirma quién soy, soy otro, necesidad de esa llamada para esa identificación. El texto de Samuel relata el hecho de la llamada del Señor y de la respuesta de Samuel: "Habla, que tu siervo escucha" (1Sam 3, 10). "Samuel crecía, y el Señor estaba con él" (1Sam 3, 19) ¿Tiene algo que ver el hecho de ser llamado y el hecho de crecer? Tiene que ver. Nos realizamos, crecemos, en la relación, la convivencia, el compartir con los demás. Cada uno es alguien, y cada alguien tiene su nombre. El que llama reconoce la presencia del llamado, la singularidad. La diferencia es riqueza de la humanidad. Vivir en armonía la diferencia y así profundizar en lo más humano. Caminar juntos al encuentro del Hijo de Dios, la Nueva Humanidad. "Rabí, ¿dónde vives?" (Jn 1, 38)
