Primer Domingo de Cuaresma Una Conciencia Limpia

Generalmente la primera lectura tiene algo en común con el evangelio. La de hoy, sin embargo, tiene más en común con la segunda lectura de San Pedro. Ambos hablan de Noé y del arca, donde las pocas personas buenas se salvaron al pasar por el agua. Pedro compara eso con las aguas del bautismo, en las que somos salvados por Dios. Como Dios lavó el mal del mundo en las aguas del diluvio, de la misma forma las aguas del bautismo nos convirtieron en un nuevo pueblo que tiene la conciencia limpia, tanto porque Dios ha perdonado nuestros pecados como porque prometemos seguirlo sólo a Él.

Eso nos lleva al Evangelio, donde Jesús es tentado por Satanás. Pero a diferencia de la gente de la época de Noé, Jesús no cae en las tentaciones. En cambio, sale del desierto y nos dice que nos arrepintamos y creamos en la buena nueva.

Eso significa que tenemos que tomar una decisión: ¿Aceptamos este reino y nos arrepentimos, o ignoramos nuestro bautismo y hacemos lo que queremos? ¿Tenemos todavía la conciencia limpia cuando pensamos en cuánto tiempo dedicamos a conocer a Jesús? ¿Alguna vez has orado o leído la Biblia fuera de la iglesia? ¿Gastamos casi lo mismo en ayudar a los pobres que en nuestras diversiones?

La próxima vez que veas un arco iris, piensa en la alianza que Dios hizo con Noé. Así como las promesas de Dios mejoran cada vez más hasta la venida de Jesús, nosotros somos desafiados a ser cada vez más como Él. ¿Estás satisfecho con sólo la promesa de que Dios no nos destruirá a todos con un diluvio? ¿O estás listo para vivir la Nueva Alianza que Jesús promete a quienes lo seguirán?

PARISH LIFE

First Sunday of Lent Clear Conscience

Usually, the first reading has something in common with the gospel. Today's however, has more in common with the second reading from St. Peter. They both talk about Noah and the ark, where the few good people were saved by going through the water. Peter compares that to the waters of Baptism, in which we are saved by God. He also has an interesting image of Jesus "preaching to the spirits in prison." It refers to the fallen angels whose disobedience lead the rest of the population to turn away from God. Just as God washed away the evil of the world in the waters of the flood, so the waters of Baptism made us into a new people who have clear consciences, both because God has forgiven our sins and because we promise to follow only Him.

That leads to the Gospel, where Jesus is tempted by Satan. But unlike the people of Noah's time, Jesus does not fall to the temptations. Instead, he comes out of the desert, proclaiming that the Kingdom of God is near. He tells us to repent and believe in the good news.

That means we have a choice to make: Do we accept this kingdom and repent, or do we ignore our baptism and do what we want? We may say that we are willing to repent, but do we do anything about it? Do we still have a clear conscience when we think of how much time we spend getting to know Jesus? Ever pray or read the bible outside of church? Do we spend near as much on the poor, as we do for movies, hobbies, video games, or drinks? Do we ever tell anyone about the kingdom and what Jesus has done for us?

Next time you see a rainbow, think about the covenant that God made with Noah. Just as God's promises get better and better till the coming of Jesus, we are challenged to be more and more like Him. Are you satisfied with just a promise that God won't destroy us all in a flood? Or are you ready to live the New Covenant that Jesus promises to those who will follow him?

PARISH LIFE

The Cleansing Power of Water

Today's first reading speaks to us of Noah's Ark. The flood that God sent upon the world in Noah's day was a cleansing of evil. Now, God cleanses us not by floods, but by the waters of baptism, which bring to us a whole new kind of life: the life of God within us.

Our special efforts in Lent to come closer to God are a response to what has already happened to us! Because we have received the new life of God, we have to reform our lives and live as his sons and daughters. We have to become who we already are. The holy water we use when we come in and out of Church is a reminder of the cleansing waters of baptism, and a reminder of the new life we are called to live.

God is a God of life, and therefore we are the People of Life. This Lent, let's look for ways to foster respect for life, especially the sick, the disabled, and the unborn.

"This is the time of fulfillment." [Today's Gospel] The call to repentance, issued at the start of Lent, is a call to respond to something that has already happened... God has cleansed us by the waters of baptism, and given us new, eternal life. This is the fulfillment which brings an obligation: reform your lives, so that they will correspond to the new life that has been poured into you!

Repentance, therefore, is not a matter of something imposed from the outside, but rather a matter of being consistent with a gift already given.

This gift, essentially, is life. By the new and eternal covenant, renewed in each Mass, we become, ever more deeply, a people of Life. The repentance we undertake is expressed in the self-giving that Christ shows us on the altar. We give ourselves away to foster life in our families, our communities, and the world.

Putting ourselves aside to welcome the gift of life in the person of the unborn child is a particularly urgent aspect of the repentance needed in our nation today. Lent gives us the opportunity to echo that call: Reform your lives, and put aside the doubt, fear, and selfishness that would destroy another human being in the name of "choice." Reform your lives, and repent of the silence that keeps you from defending the helpless in your midst. Reform your lives, and work for the reformation of the laws and policies of the nation, that they may protect the rights that God has already given to all, born and unborn. Reform your lives, reject the covenant of death, and live the Covenant of Life! ~ Priests for Life ~

ATTENTION MALE PARISHIONERS!

Our parish is blessed to have four active priests serving at Saint James Catholic Church (Father Michael, Father Loi, Father Chuck and Father Francisco). The Fasting Brothers Ministry is seeking men to join our ministry. A minimum of six men per priest is needed (at least 24). Each fasting brother offers some form of fasting as a way of praying for the needs and intentions of one of our priests on a specific day each week. Each man prayerfully discerns the type of unique fasting he will offer and commits to doing the specific fasting on a designated day of the week (except Sundays/Solemnities). Fasting examples include fasting from food or drink or refraining from social media or radio/TV on the assigned day. Please consider supporting our priests by joining our ministry.
