CORPUS CHRISTI PROCESSIONS

The Solemnity of Corpus Christi is celebrated on the Thursday following Trinity Sunday, or 60 days after Easter. Corpus Christi is Latin for "the Body of Christ" and this feast celebrates that Jesus remains here with us as our daily bread. This year's Solemnity of Corpus Christi is on Sunday, June 2. Stay tuned for more information about processions in our local community!

NATIONAL EUCCHARISTIC PILGRIMAGE & CONGRESS

Join your Catholic brothers and sisters as we encounter the living Jesus Christ, experience profound renewal, and are sent out on mission for the life of the world! Day passes are still available for the NEC and there will be opportunities to be apart of the pilgrimage traveling through Bardstown and Louisville!

Find more info at eucharisticcongress.org or scan the QR Code!

WHY A REVIVAL?

Our world is hurting. We all need healing, yet many of us are separated from the very source of our strength. Jesus Christ invites us to return to the source and summit of our faith in the celebration of the Eucharist. The National Eucharistic Revival is a movement to restore understanding and devotion to this great mystery here in the United States by helping us renew our worship of Jesus Christ in the Eucharist.

LITURGICALLY LIVING HOLY WEEK

- On Palm Sunday, create a Holy Week prayer altar. Add the following items: A bible, candles, your palm branches, a crucifix, holy cards, etc. Gather here to pray each evening.
- Limit secular music this week. Look To Him and Be Radiant has Holy Week playlists. Limit desserts & other worldly pleasures.
- On "Spy Wednesday," hide 30 quarters around the living room and have your children find them. Then, read about Judas' betrayal & explain how vices can motivate us not to be our best selves, but virtues help us to draw closer to Jesus.
- On Holy Thursday, reflect on the priesthood and the gift of Jesus in the Eucharist. Wash each other's feet in your home and reflect on the importance of serving others, especially those you live with. Write a thank you note to one of our priests; deliver it at the Holy Thursday Mass of the Last Supper at 6pm at Saint James.
- On Good Friday, pray the Stations of the Cross and make hot cross buns. Keep silence in your home from 2:45-3:00 in honor of Jesus who died at the 3 o'clock hour. Attend the 6pm Good Friday service at Saint James.

Domingo de Ramos Con amigos como estos...

La promesa hecha por el Señor en la primera lectura es muy audaz. Dice que todos lo conocerán, sin tener que ser enseñados por otros. No restringe la promesa sólo a las personas más santas. Dice que la manera en que las personas lo conocerán es a través del perdón de sus pecados. Acuérdate que está hablando a los israelitas, que tenían tantas leyes y mandamientos que necesitaban escribas y fariseos para seguirlos. Cuando rompían un mandamiento o una ley, quedaban aislados de la comunidad. Así que, la promesa de que Dios pondría su ley en sus corazones significaba que serían libres de hacer la voluntad de Dios porque quisieran, no porque temieran el castigo o el rechazo.

Jesús dice algo semejante en el evangelio de hoy. Les dice a los discípulos que su crucifixión atraería a todos hacia él. Ahora, la muerte de Jesús mostró que él asumió el castigo por los pecados en lugar nuestro, quienes lo merecemos. En el evangelio de Lucas incluso ora por quienes lo crucificaron, pidiendo el perdón a Dios. (Lc 23,34) Al morir en la cruz, Jesús muestra cuánto nos ama Dios. Al resucitar de entre los muertos, demuestra que podemos resucitar del pecado a una vida nueva de fe y amor.

Volviendo a la primera lectura, experimentamos esa promesa cuando presentamos nuestros pecados a Dios. Cuando perdonamos a las personas que nos han lastimado, también les ayudamos a experimentar ese amor. Después de todo, si yo puedo perdonar a alguien, seguramente Dios lo perdonará. También ayudamos a otros a conocer a Dios cuando compartimos o experimentamos el perdón.

¿Todavía no estás seguro si Dios te ha perdonado? El sacramento de la Reconciliación nos da la seguridad del perdón de Dios, y también la experiencia. Junto con los demás sacramentos, nos ayuda a mantener el amor de Dios en nuestros corazones.

PARISH LIFE

Palm Sunday With Friends Like These...

This year, we hear the Passion from the gospel of Mark. One thing unique about this reading is the emphasis on Jesus being abandoned by his disciples. First, the leaders of the disciples, Peter, James, and John, cannot even support Jesus in his agony in the garden: They fall asleep, three times. Then there is Judas, who seeks out the chief priests to make a deal with them, Peter, who denies Jesus three times, and the disciples who flee when he is arrested. The crowds who cried, "Hosanna!" a few days before, now call for him to be crucified. Even Simon the Cyrenian had to be forced to help carry the cross.

What does this tell us? With friends like these, who needs enemies? No, the point is that Jesus died specifically for these people, not because they were once friends, but because they were sinners, who needed Jesus. All but one of them ended up as saints. And the one who didn't was Judas, who gave up on Jesus, instead of coming back to him for forgiveness. When we find ourselves in sin, when we think that everything we do is wrong, or when we think we can't possibly deserve to be loved by God—that is when God can help us, if we just stop hating ourselves and start loving and trusting the Lord. It is not the time to pretend we have avoided the big sins, or to brag about some of the good we may have done. Instead of trying to convince God that we deserve his mercy, simply agree that you need his help. God loves sinners who know they need his forgiveness and don't deserve it.

But maybe you have already been forgiven and wonder what's next. Remember the ones you would not expect to support Jesus: The centurion supervising his crucifixion proclaims him Son of God. A member of the Sanhedrin gives Jesus a burial place. The women who were there to the end. These were people who did not claim to be worthy, just did what they could to show their love. Ask Jesus each morning when you wake up, "What can I do for you today?" and do what you can.

PARISH LIFE

The People of Life, Born from the Cross

...[T]he Church as the People of Life is born from the Cross. Jesus' passion and death are his self-giving, and the power of that self-giving is given to us, that we might give ourselves to one another in serving, protecting, and celebrating the gift of life.

...[B]eing "pro-life" and defending life are not things "added on" to our faith, or optional, "extra-curricular" activities. On the contrary, the whole culmination of the liturgical year leads us to the days when Jesus, by dying, destroyed our death, and by rising, restored our life. That is why the liturgy, especially in these days, is the most appropriate place to speak about life as a gift of inestimable value.

In particular, Jesus endured the rigors of the passion – described in today's liturgy in great detail – precisely because of how much he values human life. He did it for us. He did it because he wanted to raise human life to the heights of heaven. Through his Passion and resurrection, he does not only conquer his own death; he overturns the very kingdom of death. We cannot listen to or believe the Gospel of the Passion without marveling at how much God loves each human life, and without feeling impelled to respond when that same human life is trampled underfoot. He gave his life for us; we are to give our lives for one another.

Christ died once for all, but Calvary continues today as innocent people are killed in abortion clinics nationwide. As John Paul II wrote, "It is precisely in the "flesh" of every person that Christ continues to reveal himself and to enter into fellowship with us, so that rejection of human life, in whatever form that rejection takes, is really a rejection of Christ" (The Gospel of Life, n. 104). The Gospel of the Passion continues in our day... ~ Priests for Life ~

STAFF NURSE -- POSITION OPENING

Clarity Solutions is a faith-based, non-profit ministry that provides help and hope to men and women experiencing an unexpected pregnancy situation. We are currently seeking to fill a part-time Staff Nurse position at 15-20 hours per week. This position requires a professional nursing license. Our team of nurses provides support and care to the clients and maintains professional standards of care, following the ANA Code of Ethics. The Staff Nurse will work with clients to assure they are receiving the best medical, nursing, and psychosocial care possible. Upon successful completion of training on limited obstetrical ultrasound, the Staff Nurse conducts limited obstetrical ultrasounds as outlined in the ultrasound policies and procedures for qualified patients.

As a faith-based organization, all Clarity employees must also agree with the Clarity's Statement of Faith. Interested applicants may send inquiries, and/or apply by sending a resume and cover letter to CEO, Marquita Ball at 116 E. Memorial Drive, Elizabethtown, KY 42701 or at marquita@clarityky.com. If you have questions, she may also be reached by phone at (270) 234-1122.

Palm Crosses

Follow the instructions below to create your own palm cross!

1 Holding a palm strip with the curled edge toward you, fold up the widest end in a loop about 2" long.

2 Then fold the top piece downward until it covers the top of the previous fold and forms a loop about 2". Place a staple at the intersection.

3 Bend the thin end of the palm to the right, creasing on a diagonal line.

4 Fold the palm behind the cross, forming a loop about 1 1/2" on the left. Secure in the center with another staple.

5 Continue the fold toward the front of the cross forming a loop 1 1/2" on the left. Secure it with another staple.

6 Wrap the remainder of the palm over the top-right angle of the cross, bringing it straight across the back and over the top-left angle to the front. Cross it diagonally to the bottom-right corner ...

7 ... straight across the back and bring it to the front from the bottom-left corner. Bring it from the bottom-left corner to the top-right corner and to the back again.

8 Weave the small remaining piece in the back under loops and tie it off. If needed, you can use another staple of a drop of glue.

9 Add dried flowers or a tiny bow.

St. James Stewardship Sunday will be April 21.

Stewardship is based on the spiritual principles of the Old Testament and the teachings of Jesus Christ.

Stewardship allows us to thank God for all the blessings He has given to us by committing to a life of prayer, participation and generosity.

Stewardship will transform the spiritual lives of each of us and our parish as a whole.
